Congratulations to the Wes Suits—it's a girl, Christine Norris, born February 3.

We're happy to have Ruth Robertson back with us after being away on account of illness.

Bride-To-Be Honored

Nantucket's bride-to-be, Dot Andrews, was delightfully entertained at a party Tuesday night, February 6, at the home of Mrs. Walter Gardner with Louise Cooke as co-hostess. In the game of "Hearts" high score went to Audrey Vestal, with low to Louise Landress. The hostess presented china to the honoree. Refreshments were in the bridal motif.

We welcome the following new personnel:

Clyde Miller, who comes to the Research and Quality Control Dept. from Dan River Mills, Danville, Va.

Frank E. Barron, who comes to the Engineering Dept. from Monarch Mills, Union, S. C.

There have also been some transfers to the Nantucket:

Earline Cooper comes to the Standards Dept. (Labor Meter) from Leaksville Personnel.

Howard Burgess comes to the Standards Dept. from the Rayon Mill.

J. A. Gillespie transfers to Engineering Dept. from Standards Dept.
