NANTUCKET NEWS (By Louise Landress) Vacation time—

"Scrap" Miller and family had a most enjoyable week at the beach.

Horace, Betty, and Patsy Penn visited relatives and friends in Pennsylvania and New York. Horace and Betty also visited Canada and Niagara Falls. Second honeymoon?

Inez Williams moved into her new home on the New Reidsville Road, Very excited about it, too.

Louise Nowlin's husband, Howard, spent three weeks at home on leave from the Navy. Louise reports: one meal at home—weight gained, 5 pounds—future schedule—strict diet.

Dick and Gertie Tanner traveled to Kentucky, Chicago and Zion, Illinois, Michigan, and Canada visiting old Army friends. Highlights of the trip reported by the Tanners were visit to Marshall Field Store in Chicago and mint juleps in Kentucky.

The "Red" Byrds have moved into the Smith River Apartments. They spent part of their vacation in Florence, S. C.

Louise Landress spent a week in Washington and Joyce Strother is at Myrtle Beach for a week.

Herb Pratt just stayed around the house and took care of his young son, Warren, giving Mary the vacation.

Sam Rhodes' son, Donnie, had the misfortune to fall out of the car. He was hospitalized for a week with a skull fracture but is now at home.

We would like to welcome Vivian Harris, who is new in the Typing Pool.

Fred Sturtevant and daughter Norma visited friends and relatives in the East.

Lib Lamar spent her vacation with the family at home.

We have missed Eddie Mills who has been in the hospital at Asheville for several weeks. Looking forward to having him back among us August 1.

Rev. J. K. McConnell is in Leaksville recuperating from an appendectomy.

W. E.Tucker who was hospitalized for poison ivy has now returned home.

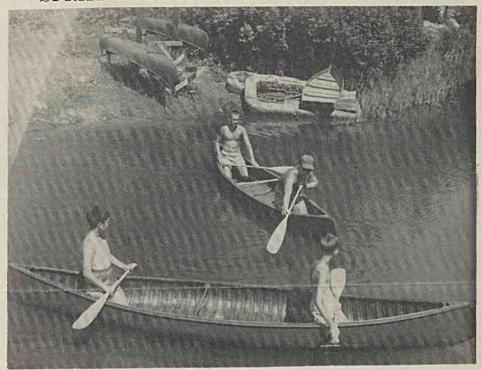

We have in mind "things pink and blue" for Hazel Thomasson who takes a leave of absence August 1.

Embarrassing Error

In the congregation of a church during Sunday morning service was a young bride whose husband was an usher. Becoming terribly worried about having left the roast in the oven, she wrote a note to her husband, sending it to him by another usher. The latter, thinking it was a note for the pastor, hurried down the aisle and laid it on the pulpit. Stopping abruptly in the middle of his sermon to read the note, the astonished pastor was met with this written injunction: "Please go home and turn off the gas."

SPRAY SCOUTS ENJOY WATER SPORTS

These Spray Boy Scouts, Kerwin Smith, front, and William Reece receive pointers on canoeing during demonstration at Camp Cherokee. Instructors in second canoe are Jimmy Hardy, of Reidsville, waterfront director, and Dean Sharp, Eagle Scout of Madison, a member of the camp staff.

Water sports and water safety are emphasized at Camp Cherokee among numerous wholesome camp activities. Camp Cherokee is now in its sixth week, will have had more than 600 campers participating by the time the camp closes July 28 according to C. Lin Adams, Cherokee Council Scout Executive. It will be an all-time record for the camp.

Kerwin Smith is the son of Durwood Smith of the Electric Blanket Mill. His mother (Inez) works in Finishing Mill. William Reece is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Reece of Carolina Heights. His father was the Tri-Cities' Father of the Year and is employed by Meadow Dairies.

Spencer Brothers Meet In Korea

Cpl. William J. Spencer writes that he and his buddies enjoy The Mill Whistle and he would like for it to be sent to his new address. Cpl. Spencer and his brother, Second Lt. Alex Levi Spencer, were made happy a few weeks ago when by chance they met in the wee morning hours. Cpl. Spencer's brother gave him candy and some toilet articles which were scarce at the time. The young soldier writes that "it was like being at home for a few hours" then it was Korea again.

Cpl. Spencer made his home with W. B. Haynes of Warren Avenue, Spray, before entering service. He was an employee of the Finishing Mill, as is Mr. Haynes. His new address follows:

Cpl. W. J. Spencer, RA 14281756 Co. B 772 M.P. Bn. A.P.O. 301 Care P.M.

San Francisco, California.
