Sixty eighth-graders from the Madison schools toured the Karastan Rug Mill February 17 in connection with their studies of North Carolina industries. Mrs. John Webster and Mrs. Henry Webster, teachers, headed the group, which was accompanied by several parents

The students subsequently held classrooms discussions of their visit. Mrs. John Webster told the MILL WHISTLE that the students reported very favorable impressions of Karastan and of the Company.

Rev. J. K. McConnell, industrial chaplain, accompanied one of the groups.
