

Vote As You Please—BUT VOTE!

Tomorrow (Tuesday, November 6) is election day.

You have a lot to lose if you don't vote. By failure to vote you will not be able to express yourself on—for instance—schools, law enforcement, etc., candidates and the issues they stand for. You will be letting those who DO VOTE decide these important matters for you.

The right to vote is a priceless heritage of a free people. It is your ticket to continued freedom and the kind of government, local and national, that you want.

Maybe you think your vote won't matter in the final results. But you're wrong. Your vote could decide an election.

Historically, one vote has had a lot to do with things in this country:

Thomas Jefferson was elected by a single vote in the electoral college as was John Quincy Adams.

Just one vote elected California, Idaho, Oregon, Washington and Texas to statehood.

More recently, the Draft Act of World War II passed the House by one vote.

Less than one vote per voting district determined the margin of victory for candidates in the New Jersey 1954 off-year elections.

So don't throw away the vote you're entitled to cast in tomorrow's election. It may elect your candidate to office.

Intelligent voting is a basic act of good citizenship. Be a responsible citizen. Make up your own mind. Vote as you please—BUT VOTE!

Towel Remains Good After 22 Years

This Fieldcrest towel remains in good condition after 22 years. It was one in a package of towels purchased in 1934 by Jesse Tucker, assistant foreman at the Finishing Mill. Mr. Tucker recalls that the towels were brought from Fieldale by the late Jimmy Jones, who at that time drove for the Company.

Holding the attractive, long-wearing towel are Mr. Tucker's daughter, Gladys, and Mrs. Tucker, a former Fieldcrest employee.
