

THE MILL WHISTLE

Fieldcrest
FASHIONS FOR BED AND BATH

Karastan
AMERICAN FINEST POWER LOOMED RUG

Published by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. - Plants located in Spray, Draper and Leaksville, N. C. and Fieldale, Va.

VOL. XVI

Spray, N. C., Monday, December 2, 1957

NUMBER 11

Sales Vice Presidents Are Appointed

Hugh P. Feeley E. S. Klein, Jr. G. W. Moore A. S. Thompson
... Named as Vice Presidents of Fieldcrest's New Sales Divisions ...

Promotions Announced In New Divisions

Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., which recently organized its domestics and Karastan sales departments as separate divisions of the company, has announced four appointments of vice presidents of the newly-created sales divisions.

Promotions at Fieldcrest, Division of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., announced by Frederic W. Hoit, president, are G. W. Moore vice president in charge of merchandising; Arthur S. Thompson, vice-president in charge of sales; and E. Stanley Klein, Jr., vice president in charge of specialty accounts.

The promotion of Hugh P. Feeley to vice president of Karastan Rug Mills, division of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., was announced by Walter B. Guinan, president.

Mr. Moore joined the Company in 1946 and has held positions as blanket department manager and merchandising director. Mr. Thompson became affiliated with Fieldcrest in 1930. Since that time he has served as manager of the Towel department, as assistant domes-

(Continued on page eight)

Children's Parties Set For Dec. 14

The children of all Fieldcrest employees are invited to Christmas parties to be sponsored by the Carolina Cooperative Council Saturday, December 14 at Spray and Fieldale.

The party for the children of employees in the North Carolina mills will be held at 10:30 a. m. in the Morehead high school gymnasium. The party for the children of Towel Mill employees will follow at 1:30 p. m. in the Fieldale high school auditorium.

The parties will feature music, group singing, entertainment, and the arrival of Santa Claus with treats for all of the children. Management officials will be present to bring greetings from the Company.

At the North Carolina party, the Rev. Harry D. Wood, pastor of First Baptist Church, Leaksville, will make a brief talk on "The Spirit of Christmas." The Rev. Raleigh Mann, pastor of the Fielddale Methodist Church, will make a similar talk at Fieldale.

Entertainment will include selections on the Hammond organ by John Mickey of Winston-Salem and an outstanding trained dogs act to be presented by Abner Harrington, of Sanford. There will be group singing of Christmas carols at each program.

Tickets to the parties will be available for the children of all employees. Notices will be placed on the bulletin boards in the mills this week informing employees how to obtain tickets for their children.

Invitations and member tickets will be mailed to members of the Carolina Cooperative Council and the Junior Carolina Council. The tickets will be used in drawings for valuable door prizes for Council members.

Junior Council Will Enjoy Annual Social At Meadow Greens Club

A full program of entertainment has been arranged for the annual social to be held by the Junior Carolina Council at the new Meadow Greens Country Club Friday evening, December 6, starting at 7:00 o'clock.

Margaret Crane, of the Industrial Relations Department, program chairman, will be mistress of ceremonies. She will present Gordon Pittendreigh for several selections on the piano, followed by Betty Dyer, Industrial Relations Department, soloist. Mamie Link, of the Draper Cost Department, will lead the group singing of Christmas carols and will sing a solo.

Floyd Strader, of the Blanket Mill office, will have charge of the Bingo games. In addition there will be tables of rook, bridge and Canasta. Other program events will be a valuable attendance prize, refreshments, dancing.

Member and guest tickets have been distributed to those members planning to attend. Wives and husbands of members are invited. Unmarried members may bring one adult guest.

Retiring Employees Honored At Meeting

Fourteen employees who retired effective December 1 under the Fieldcrest Pension Plan were honored in ceremonies held in the Nantucket conference room Friday morning, November 29. The retirees' first monthly pension checks were presented during the program.

C. J. Frank, director of industrial relations, presided. In introductory remarks he congratulated the retirees upon having reached retirement age and wished them happiness during retirement. He predicted that the retirees will find retirement to be an enjoyable experience as they are able to devote more of their time to church work, civic affairs and to hobbies in which they are interested.

President Harold W. Whitcomb and
(Continued on page eight)