

Tracy Is Appointed Eastern Sales Manager

Several Additional Personnel Changes Are Announced In Fieldcrest Division

David M. Tracy has been appointed Eastern sales manager of Fieldcrest, a division of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., it was announced by Frederic W. Hoit, president of our Fieldcrest sales division. His territory will cover 37 states.

Upon graduation from the Graduate School of Business at Harvard University, Mr. Tracy joined Fieldcrest in 1948 as district manager of eleven western states. In January, 1956, he returned to the New York sales division, as sales manager of the Fieldcrest Shop program, a position which he has held up to the present.

Several other personnel changes have been made in the Fieldcrest sales division, which have resulted in three promotions.

F. J. Egles, formerly head of the Bedsread Department, has been made manager of the Distributor Department.

J. H. Byler replaces Mr. Egles as Bedsread Department manager, and Clair E. Freeman assumes D. M. Tracy's former post as sales manager of the Fieldcrest Shop program.

Mr. Byler's and Mr. Freeman's new capacities have created three opportunities in the field organization. George D. Stewart, formerly district manager in the San Francisco area, has been transferred to Philadelphia replacing J. H. Byler. He is succeeded in San Francisco by George W. Chapin, formerly of Ely Walker & Co. Mr. Freeman's replacement in the Kansas City area is Thomas E. O'Neil, formerly domestics buyer at Halle Bros. in Cleveland.

Three new sales representatives from the New York Showroom have also been assigned territories: Frederick L. Leighton is located in Miami, Florida, working with G. Curtis Lea, district manager. John Sutherland will assist Paul G. Clarke, New York City district manager, and John M. Foster augments John H. Staak's sales staff covering New Jersey and parts of New York State.

13 Blanket Weavers On Quality Honor List

Four new names were added to the Blanket Mill's quality honor list for the period ending December 31. Included were Gladys Harris, Jesse Kennon and Raymond Overby, jacquard weavers; and Tura Brown, plain weaver.

In order to make the quality honor list, a weaver must work for six months without his or her cloth having a major quality defect.

Names of the quality weavers are posted on the weave room bulletin board each month and are published in The Mill Whistle.

When a weaver on the list has a major quality defect, his name is dropped from the list. Other weavers are added as they attain six months of quality work.

The listing of the quality weavers is part of a program at the Blanket Mill designed to emphasize the importance of quality weaving and to give recognition to weavers with outstanding quality records.

The quality honor list for the six months ending December 31 is shown in the accompanying box.

Fieldcrest Men Head Waste Paper Project

Two Fieldcrest men—George Chat-ham, of the Bedsread Finishing Mill, and Charles Patterson, of the Bedsread Mill, are co-chairmen of the waste paper drive to be conducted in the Tri-Cities Sunday, January 17, by the Jaycees.

Citizens are requested to gather up their old newspapers, magazines and all other types of waste paper and place them at the curb or driveway. It will be picked up by the Jaycees in the afternoon, starting at 1:30 p. m. If a special pick-up is desired, the citizen should contact any member of the Jaycees.

Proceeds from the sale of waste paper are used for some community purpose. The goal for each of the four drives in 1960 is 30,000 pounds which would enable the Jaycees to gross approximately $720 for the year. Fieldcresters who are members of the Jaycees' waste paper drive committee are Guy Buckle, Jim Covington, Ken Mostella, J. B. Baughn, Jr., Ed Delahooke, Stanley Ellington, Bill Hicks, Bob Moore, Haven Newton, and Walter Schacht.
