Weavers Cecil Coward, Louie Stoots and Wilmer Yeatts, on loom 61, were recipients of the Karastan Weave Room's housekeeping award for the month of January.

In recognition of their outstanding housekeeping, an attractive certificate will remain on loom 61 throughout February.

A certificate is awarded each month to weavers on the loom which has the highest total points in four inspections made by the supervisors. A housekeeping "scoreboard" in the weave room shows the points scored by the various looms as each inspection is completed.

States. It is estimated that before the end of 1961 one million men and women will be on the road to blindness unless they receive proper medical attention. Sight lost because of glaucoma cannot be restored, but the sight remaining can be saved.

Some symptoms of glaucoma are frequent need of glasses, inability to adjust the eyes to darkened rooms, loss of side vision, blurred or foggy vision, and seeing rainbow-colored rings around lights. Chronic glaucoma works slowly and painlessly as it builds up pressure and squeezes the sight out of the eyes. The victim is only vaguely disturbed by the symptoms.

The Lions Clubs are urging everyone, especially people over 40, to take advantage of these free clinics. They will be handled by competent doctors and nurses. The examinations will be easy and painless.
