

Towel Mill Honors Top Weavers, Fixers

New names appearing on the Towel Mill's list of "top" weavers and loom-fixers indicate continuing competition for the designation as leading operators.

In order to encourage quality and efficiency in the weave room, the Towel Mill gives recognition each week to the weavers and fixers with the best records. Names of the top operators are posted on the weave room bulletin board and are published in The Mill Whistle.

The "Weavers of the Week" are those with the lowest percentage of seconds with respect to the standards for the various loom groups.

The "top" loomfixers are determined through a combination of low seconds and high loom efficiency on the sections for which they are responsible.

The leading weavers and loomfixers are listed below for the most recent periods of record.

Community Is Praised For Its Fine Response

The Bloodmobile collected 204 pints of blood—an all-time record—on its visit to Fieldale Tuesday, October 23. Donors, mainly employees of the Towel Mill, turned out in large numbers to exceed the 130-pint quota by a wide margin.

A letter from Dr. W. L. Robbins, Jr., of Martinsville, Va., Blood Program chairman for the Martinsville-Henry County Red Cross chapter, congratulated the people of the Fieldale community and surrounding territory for their outstanding support of the Blood Program. Fieldcrest Mills was sponsor of the Bloodmobile visit. W. B. Chambley, foreman of carding and spinning at the Towel Mill, was general chairman. The supervisors had charge of recruiting donors in the Towel Mill.

The senior class at Fieldale High School recruited donors in the community outside of the mill and, assisted by several ladies of the community, aided with the clerical work, operation of the canteen and other duties.

Mrs. Coy Campbell, of Fieldale, had charge of the several volunteer workers who assisted during the Bloodmobile's visit. The unit was stationed at the Fieldale Community Center from noon until 6 p. m. The operation was well planned and was conducted efficiently so that there were no bottlenecks but instead a steady stream of donors throughout the afternoon.
