

Pints—A Record—On Visit To Fieldale

Towel Mill blood donors here are (standing) Betty Lou Hair, Colleen Daniel; (at table) Leonard Baker, Blanche Merri- (at back) Glenn Bullard, William Barbour.

Having temperature and pulse checked by a Red Cross nurse are, from left to right, Harold Martin, Larry Merriman, Russell Dyer, Wade Nelson and Charlie Craddock. All are Towel Mill employees.

Doctor, Red Cross nurses and volunteer registered nurses are present all the time the Bloodmobile is in operation. Above, Dr. Sprinkle checks hemoglobin of Lloyd Nester.

Each prospective donor's medical history is taken and tests are used to make sure the person can give blood without any adverse effects. Here, a nurse tests hemoglobin of Russell Dyer.

ing been checked down the line by the nurses and doctor, Law is handed bottle for blood by Mrs. W. G. Gourley, a peer worker. Student helper in center is Melanie Daniel.

Refreshments were served all donors after they gave blood. Group above includes Towel Mill employees and others. High school seniors helped serve refreshments and assisted in other ways.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1962