

THE MILL WHISTLE

Fieldcrest
COORDINATED FASHIONS
FOR BED AND BATH

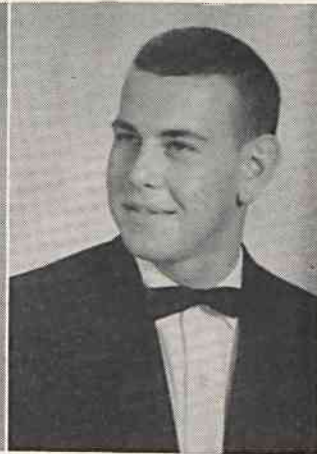

Karastan
AMERICA'S FINEST POWER-LOOMED RUG

Published by FIELDCREST MILLS, INC. • Plants at Draper, Greenville, Leaksville, Smithfield and Spray, N. C., Fieldale, Va. and Auburn, N. Y.

VOL. XXI

Spray, N. C., May 13, 1963

NO. 22

DARLENE SCOTT

JOYCE BARWICK

WAYNE HALL

.. Recipients Of Scholarships Made Possible By Fieldcrest Mills ..

Three Scholarships Awarded By Foundation

The names of three recipients of Fieldcrest Scholarships, awarded through the Fieldcrest Foundation to employees or children of employees, have been announced by President Harold W. Whitcomb.

'Miss Tri-City'

Judith Lackey Bryant, "Miss Tri-City, 1963," is a granddaughter of Charlie Aheron, a loomfixer at the Blanket Mill and a long-time Fieldcrest employee.

First runner-up for the beauty title was Patricia Yount and the second runner-up was Gloria Agee, whose mother, Mrs. Ruby Agee, is employed as an inspector in the Blanket Cutting and Sewing Department at the Finishing Mill.

The winners, chosen by the Scholarship Committee from among 19 applications were: Joyce L. Barwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley S. Barwick; Richard Wayne Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Curtis Hall; and Darlene S. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Scott.

Both of Miss Warwick's parents are employed in Spray at the Sheet Finishing Mill, her father as a service operator and her mother (Ethel) as a sheet folder.

Wayne Hall's mother, Hazel Hall, is a weaver at the Blanket Mill in Draper; and Miss Scott's mother, Hallie James Scott, is a spinner at the Towel Mill, Fieldale, Va.

All of the recipients were in the top five per cent of their class scholastically and all had good records in extra-curricular activities. Miss Barwick and Mr. Hall are members of the 1963 graduating class at Morehead High School and Miss Scott is a member of this year's graduating class at Martinsville High School.

Miss Barwick will attend Woman's College, University of North Carolina, Greensboro, and expects to become a medical technologist.

Mr. Hall is to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and major in mathematics. He plans to become a high school math teacher.

Miss Scott will attend Westhampton (Continued on Page Three)

Roberts Is Director of Financial Institute

Richmond R. Roberts, vice president-finance and treasurer, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., has been elected a director of the Financial Executives Institute. He was chosen at the organization's Southern Conference May 9-10 at the Arlington Hotel in Hot Springs, Ark.

Active in the Institute since 1953, Mr. Roberts is immediate past president of its Carolina chapter.

The Financial Executives Institute is a non-profit organization of financial executives from all fields of business—banking, manufacturing, distribution, utilities, transportation, etc. It was established in 1931 as Controllers Institute of America.

Mr. Roberts joined Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. as treasurer in February, 1957, and was elected a vice president in December, 1961. He came to Fieldcrest from the General Electric Company where he was a member of that company's financial department for over 20 years.

A native of Wise, Pa., he graduated from Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va., with an A. B. degree in English and Political Science and with an excellent record in mathematics. He was a high school teacher for one year at Appalachia, Va.

While teaching school, Mr. Roberts began his study of accounting through (Continued on Page Four)

RICHMOND R. ROBERTS