

Scholarship Winners

(Continued from Page One)

Richard Watkins, Joyce Barwick, Darlene Scott, and Wayne Hall.

Miss Wilkinson and Mr. Jenkins received the first scholarships in the fall of 1960. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wilkinson of Fieldale, Va. Her father is foreman of the Plant Service Department at the Towel Mill. Mr. Jenkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Jenkins of Ridgeway, Va. Dennis Jenkins is a twister operator at the Bedspread Mill. Miss Wilkinson will be a senior this year at Richmond Professional Institute where she is majoring in commercial art. Mr. Jenkins will be a senior, majoring in chemistry, at the University of Richmond.

Glenda Overby, Gale Rhodes, and Darrell Steagall received scholarships in the fall of 1961. Miss Overby will be a junior this year at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is majoring in mathematics. Gale Rhodes will be a junior at North Carolina State, the University of North Carolina at Raleigh, and will major either in textiles or mathematics. Darrell Steagall will be a junior majoring in textile manufacturing at North Carolina State.

Miss Overby is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Overby of Spray. Her father is a shearing machine operator at the Bedspread Mill. Mr. Rhodes is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Rhodes of Fieldcrest Scholarship recipients are shown with Scholarship Committee. Seated left to right, Joyce Barwick, Darlene Scott, Elizabeth Martin, Glenda Overby, Mary Jane Lawless; standing, C. J. Frank, committee chairman; William McGehee, secretary; Jerry Jenkins, Richard Watkins, Gale Rhodes, Darrell Steagall, Wayne Hall, and R. H. Tuttle, of Scholarship Committee. John M. Hough, a member of committee, and Linda Wilkinson, a scholarship recipient, are not shown.

Leaksville. His father is assistant designer in the domestics designing department. Mr. Steagall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Steagall, also of Leaksville. His father is a weaver at the Bedspread Mill. Darrell Steagall was employed in the Standards Department at the Karastan Mill when he awarded the scholarship.

Mary Jane Lawless, Elizabeth Martin, and Richard Watkins received their scholarships in May 1962. Mary Jane Lawless will be a sophomore at Lynchburg College where she is majoring in the social sciences and religious education. Miss Martin will be a sophomore majoring in mathematics and education at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Mr. Watkins will be a sophomore majoring in business administration at U.N.C., Chapel Hill.

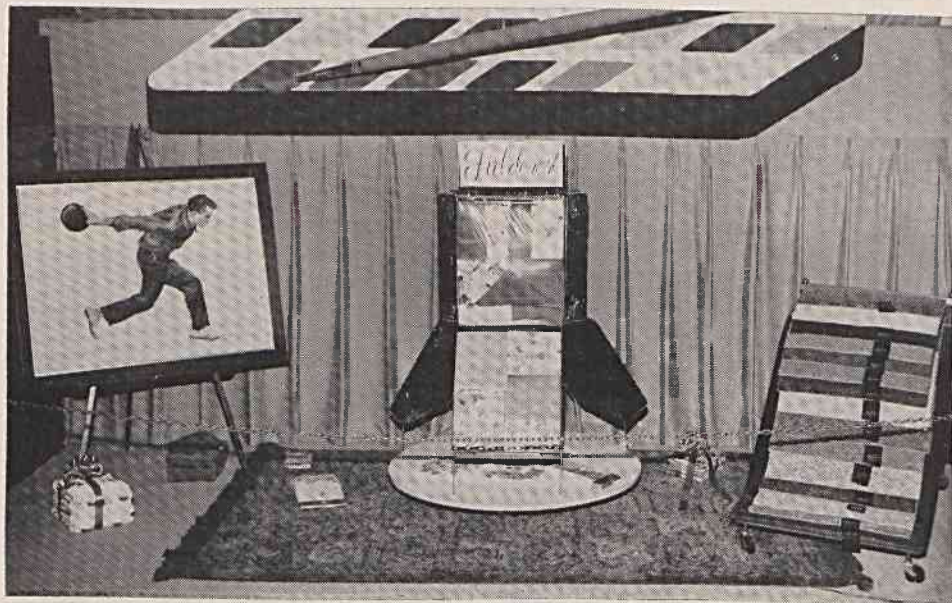

Miss Lawless is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Letcher Lawless of Fieldale, Va. Her father is a pad operator in the Piece Dyeing Department at the Towel Mill. Her mother, Ann Maude Lawless, is a spooler tender.

Miss Martin is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Martin. Her father is an inspector in the Finishing Department at the Karastan Mill. Richard Watkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watkins. His father is a loomfixer and his mother, Daisy Watkins, a weaver, at the Bedspread Mill.

The latest recipients of scholarships announced in May, 1963, were Joyce Barwick, Darlene Scott, and Wayne Hall. Miss Barwick will enter the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and will major in medical technology. Miss Scott will enroll at Westhampton College of the University of Richmond where she will major in Spanish. Wayne Hall will attend Lees-McRae College and will major in mathematics.

Miss Barwick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley S. Barwick, both of whom are employees of the Sheet Finishing Mill. Miss Scott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Scott of Martinsville, Va. Her mother, Hallie James Scott, is a spinner at the Towel Mill, Fieldale, Va. Mr. Hall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman C. Hall of Draper. His mother, Hazel Hall, is a weaver at the Blanket Mill.

Products Shown In Fair Exhibit

The Fieldcrest booth, showing some of our coordinated fashions for bed and bath and rug and carpet items by Karastan, was prominent among the exhibits at the Tri-City Agricultural Fair.

Featured in the exhibit were towels in various colors arranged as a water color box and brush and an easel holding a new Happiness rug, "The Bowler."

The main part of the exhibit showed Romance Is A Rose printed sheets, towels, bath rugs, shower curtains, and coordinated Royal Velvet towels.

Also featured were Imperial Rose and Queen's Rose bedspreads, a Gold Crown automatic blanket, a Royal Chateau blanket, and packages of Romance Is A Rose printed sheets and Royal Velvet towels in solid colors.

In addition to the Happiness rug shown, an Alexei rug was used on the floor of the exhibit and a waterfall design rack at the right displayed samples of new broadloom fabrics.

The display was arranged by John B. Buckner, Jr., assistant manager of the Fieldcrest Store, and Lonnie Hankins, foreman of the Sample Department.