25-Year Club Picnic

Entertainment By Draper YMCA Chorus Greatly Enjoyed; New Members Welcomed Into Club

Pictures on the opposite page show scenes at the 25-Year Club picnic for long-service employees of the Blanket and Sheeting Mills. The event was held at the Draper Junior High School auditorium Saturday afternoon, October 5.

A highlight of the program was entertainment by the Draper YMCA Chorus, directed by Mamie L. Dickson of the Draper Cost Department, and with Doris Jarrett, of Blanket Scheduling, as accompanist. A large percentage of the members of the chorus are Fieldcrest employees and a number of them are members of the 25-Year Club.

In a brief talk, C. J. Frank, Fieldcrest director of industrial relations, reviewed the progress and growth of the company in the past 10 years. He congratulated the long-service employees and cited their contribution they have made to the company's success through the years.

Hugh T. Bundy, manager of blanket operations, was master of ceremonies. The welcome was extended by John Powell, manager of sheet operations.

R. J. Adkins, retired night superintendent of the Blanket and Sheeting Mills, presented the new members coming into the 25-Year Club this year.

The new members included, in Blanket Mill, Harry V. Barrow, Ellen Blackwell, Robert E. Burnett, Miss G. Carter, Alvin M. Harris, Addie Hodge, Howard Hyler, Jr., Jesse L. Non, Nora H. Martin, Maggie H. Nelson and Mallie A. Proffit.

In the Sheeting Mill, Clara H. Berry, Annie S. Gover, Eva P. Medford, P. Pruitt and Elsie D. Young.

The drawing for attendance prizes was conducted by Gene Inman, foreman of the Blanket Mill Inspecting Department, Edith Aaron, and Lottie Miller, both of the Inspecting Department.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Weaving Room, Garland Newnam, Sheeting Room, a Royal Chateau Acrilan blanket; R. E. New, Sheeting Carding Spinning Department, South Wind wool blanket; Myrtle M. Light, Blanket Inspecting, and Ruby B. Thomas, Blanket Wood Spinning, Royal Satin sheets.
