

THOMAS R. SMITHWICK

MALCOLM A. TAYLOR

Organization Changes Announced

The following organization changes, effective Monday, May 17, have been announced:

Thomas R. Smithwick, assistant foreman in the Spinning Department at the Karastan Spinning Division, Greenville, was transferred to Leaksville as assistant foreman in the Weave Room at the Karastan Mill.

Malcolm A. Taylor, quality control technician at the Karastan Spinning Division, was appointed assistant foreman in the Spinning Department at Greenville, replacing Mr. Smithwick.

A native of Windsor, Mr. Smithwick first joined the company in September, 1961, as assistant foreman in the Repair Department at the Automatic Blanket Plant, Smithfield. He later worked as a standards engineer at Smithfield and in July, 1962, was transferred to Greenville as a trainee. He was promoted to assistant foreman of the Spinning Department in July, 1963.

Mr. Smithwick is married to the former Sara Lancaster, also a Windsor native. They have a daughter eight years old; a son, six; and a daughter, four years old. The family will move to the Tri-Cities as soon as housing arrangements have been completed.

Mr. Taylor began his employment with Fieldcrest Mills as a quality control technician at Greenville in February, 1965. He was born at Tally-ho, and attended Needham B. Broughton High School in Raleigh. He is currently enrolled at East Carolina College and is in his senior year working toward an A.B. degree.

Mr. Taylor is married to the former Rebecca Ann Davis of Winston-Salem, who is a business major senior at East Carolina College.

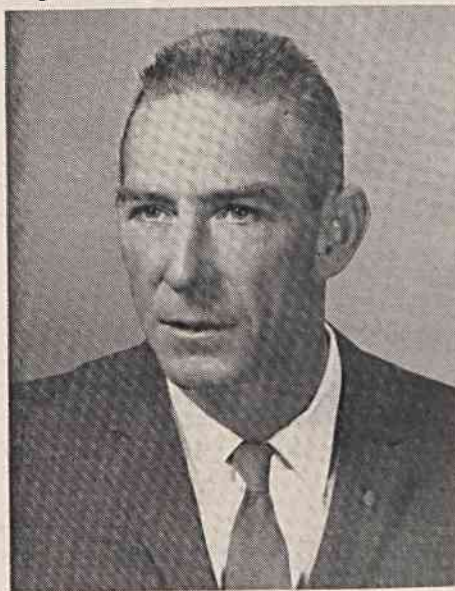

Robertson Named Spray Mayor Pro Tem

W. Jim Robertson, Sr., grounds supervisor at Fieldcrest, served as Mayor of Spray for several days following his recent election to the town board.

Running for his third term as a commissioner, he led the ticket in the Spray municipal election May 4. Then, at the organizational meeting of the new board, his fellow commissioners unanimously elected him mayor pro tem. He served as mayor while Mayor Russell W. Hunter was away on vacation.

In addition to his municipal office, Mr. Robertson is a member of the recently - organized Rockingham County Wildlife Commission, senior vice commander of the Strong - Martin - Stegail Post No. 2544, Veterans of Foreign Wars, a member and deacon of Floyd Baptist Church.

He served in the South Pacific with the Second Marine Division in World War II and participated in the landings at Saipan, Tinian and Okinawa. He has been grounds supervisor at Fieldcrest Mills for 14 years.
