

Cory Buckle is presented award by Louise Swinney after winning top place in the section for children under 16 years of age in the Tri-City Rose Show. Looking on are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buckle.

At Tri-City Rose Show, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dudley Weaver (center) and Mrs. A. G. Singleton, admire rose grown by H. E. Williams, of the Engineering Department. Mr. Weaver is a 50-year employee of Fieldcrest, now retired.

Employees Take Part In Tri-City Rose Show

A number of Fieldcresters participated in the recent Tri-City Rose Show at Consolidated Central YMCA. The show was the largest in the history of the Tri-City Rose Society.

Miss Gertrude Snead won top honors with her "McGredy's Ivory," a white hybrid tea rose. Miss Snead received the Gold Certificate of the American Rose Society and the Spray Finance Company's Queen of the Show award for the best individual bloom in the show.

The Sweepstakes Award given by Fieldcrest Mills went to Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Peterson, of Leaksville, for winning the largest number of ribbons.

This was the sixth year that they have won this award, with the Gold Certificate of the American Rose Society.

In the section for children under 16 years of age, Cory Buckle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buckle, won a silver bowl given by Louise Swinney, president of the Rose Society.

Lucile Cherry (left) and Doris Brown, leaders in Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority

Fieldcresters Honored By Sorority

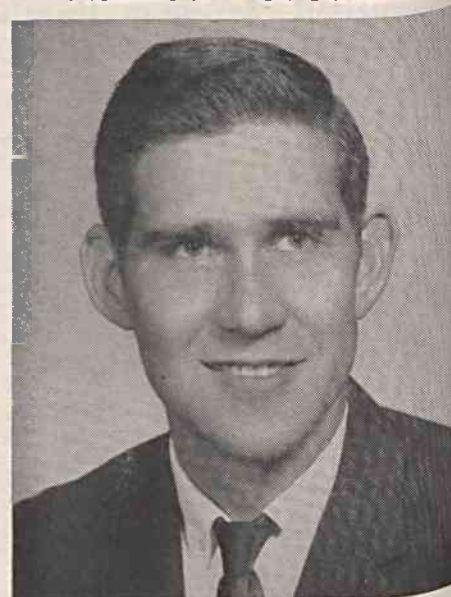

Doris Brown and Lucile Cherry, both of the Industrial Relations Department at Spray, received honors at the recent state convention of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority held in Greenville.

Mrs. Brown, a charter member of the local Beta Alpha chapter, was elected treasurer of the N. C. State Council of the sorority. Mrs. Cherry was elected chairman of the state scholarship board on which she formerly had served as a member.

As the Beta Alpha chapter award winner for outstanding service to the community and the chapter in 1964-65, Mrs. Cherry was given special recognition on the convention program. She also was presented her pin signifying 10 years of membership.

Fieldcresters attending the convention in addition to Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Cherry were Betty Flinchum, Finishing Mill Office; Sue Hall, Domestic Designing; and Billie Thomas, Karastan Office.

Named Foreman

William Kenneth Hammond, assistant foreman, was promoted to foreman of the Dye House at the Blanket Mill to replace Robert O. Dietz, who retired May 31 under the Retirement Program.

Mr. Hammond is a native of Georgia and received his B. S. in textiles degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta. He was employed as a trainee at the Blanket Mill in September, 1963. He was promoted to assistant foreman in the Dye House in November, 1964, and served in that capacity until he was appointed foreman.