Scholarship Recipients Visit At Fieldcrest

The four latest recipients of Fieldcrest Scholarships awarded by the Fieldcrest Foundation recently made visits to the plants where their parents work. The scholarship winners were greeted by mill officials and extended congratulations and good wishes for their success in furthering their education. Accompanied by the parents, the Fieldcrest Scholars were conducted on brief tours of the plants.

Recipients of the scholarships, chosen by the Scholarship Committee, were:

Barry Trevis Byrd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Trevis Byrd, Rt. 1, Linwood; Larry Irvin Denny, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Irvin Denny, Spray; Jovita Dawn Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie F. Flynn, Leaksville; and Ronald Lewis Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude L. Martin, Rt. 3, Martinsville, Va.

Barry Byrd's father is a continuous dye machine operator at the North Carolina Finishing Company Division, Salisbury; Larry Denny's father is a loomfixer at the Sheeting Mill, Draper; Jovita Flynn's father is a refrigeration maintenance inspector in the Engineering Department, Spray; and Ronald Martin's father is a dye machine tender at the Towel Mill, Fieldale, Va.

The Fieldcrest Scholarships, each worth $2,400 over the four years of college attendance, are awarded on the basis of academic aptitude, good citizenship and leadership, and the need for financial assistance in obtaining a college education.

Barry Byrd will use his scholarship to attend North Carolina State University at Raleigh and will major in textile technology. Larry Denny will attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. He plans to major in mathematics and become a high school and later a college teacher.

Jovita Flynn has been accepted at Appalachian State Teachers College. She will major in elementary education and plans to become a teacher. Ronald Martin has been admitted to the University of Virginia and will major in architecture.
