

Spirited discussion marks class in "Supervisory Action", one of the training courses just completed. Instructor, standing, is W. F. Crumley.

39 Complete Training Courses

Thirty-nine Fieldcrest men from a wide variety of company locations have recently completed courses arranged by the Fieldcrest Training Department in collaboration with Rockingham Community College. All classes were held at the General Offices at Spray.

Those participating were management trainees and new supervisors, that is, men who have recently been promoted to assistant foreman. The enrollees represented most of the company's southern mills. Several from outside locations attended classes for 10 days on a fulltime basis.

Courses and instructors were: "Cost Control," Joe Graham; "Communication" and "Industrial Psychology," both taught by J. E. Gardner; "Labor Relations", D. F. Carson and J. B. O'Neal; "Safety", K. R. Baggett; "Supervisory Action", W. F. Crumley; and "Industrial Engineering", conducted by Graham Phillips and Raymond Endicott.

Taking one or more courses were:

Roger Adams, Towel; Bill Bagley, Muscogee; Armon Baldwin, Towel; Donald Bateman, Bedspread Finishing; Sandy Beck, Mt. Holly; Marvin Bigbee, Muscogee; Charles Bishop, Towel; Roy Campbell, Auditing; Bob Edwards, Finishing; George Edwards, Sheeting; Joe Etheridge, Finishing; D. B.
