

Good Housekeeping

Neat and attractive surroundings help to make pleasant working conditions. Also, cleanliness and orderliness aid efficiency, quality and safety.

The picture at right shows a good example of open stock storage at the Central Warehouse, Eden. Note the proper storage of trucks and the clean, open aisle permitting easy access to the racks.

The floor in this department has recently been refinished as part of several housekeeping improvements that have been made at the Central Warehouse.

Be A Blood Donor

Wednesday, Nov. 27

Bloodmobile Will Be

At The Moose Lodge

11 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Moore Named Assistant Foreman At Alexander

Jackie R. Moore recently was appointed assistant foreman in the Carding and Spinning Department at the Alexander Sheeting Mill, Forest City. He previously was a supervisory trainee, having completed the company-sponsored supervisory training program.

He first joined Fieldcrest in 1959 as a control repairer at the Automatic Blanket Mill and later worked as a schedule clerk and as a scheduler in the Blanket Scheduling Department and in the Sheet Finishing Schedule Department.

He enrolled in the full-time supervisory training program in December, 1967,

Corbett Completes 40 Years In Rug Sales

Thomas J. Corbett, Karastan territory salesman in northern New Jersey, observed his 40th anniversary in the Karastan Marketing Division on November 15.

Mr. Corbett ranks as the senior member of the Karastan sales organization in point of service, having joined the Karastan Sales Department just seven months after it was organized in April, 1928, by Marshall Field & Company.

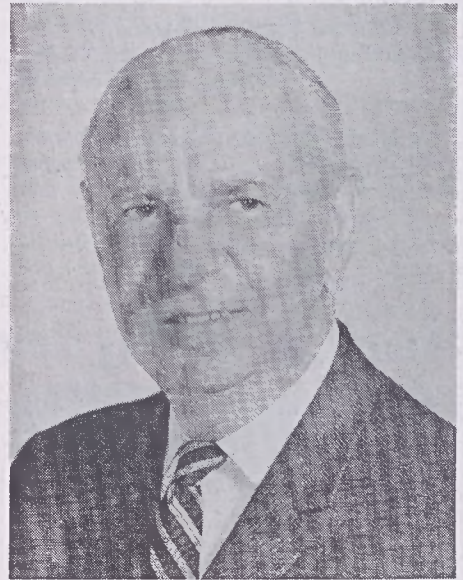

His first assignment was as a floor salesman in the New York showroom. He subsequently held the post of New York office manager for five years and was also the assistant sales manager for Karastan.

Mr. Corbett has many years of successful territorial sales background, having sold for Karastan in Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana, Pennsylvania and the metropolitan New York area. In his present territory, he serves a number of key Karastan dealers including Bambergers and Huffman & Boyle.

Mr. Corbett and his wife, Anne, live in Teaneck, N. J. They have four daughters and a son and, at last count, six grandchildren.

and was transferred to the Alexander plant as a supervisory trainee in April of this year.

Mr. Moore is a native of Eden and a graduate of Morehead High School. He is married to the former Jean Richardson of Eden, and they have three children, Cheryl, seven; Virginia Grey, five; and Geoffrey, three.

THOMAS J. CORBETT

... Senior In Karastan Marketing ...

Brian Keith Rowland

Brian Keith Rowland, is the 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Rowland of Martinsville, Va. His mother, Barbara, is office clerk in the Sewing Department at the Towel Mill, Fieldale, Va.