

Patrol Wagon Provides Additional Security

A new service added to plant protection in the Blanket Operation areas is provided by this security patrol wagon.

Major Edwin Pistilli, security officer, said the patrol wagon will strengthen the plant security and particularly will provide better patrolling of the warehouse areas and the parking lots.

Above, Major Pistilli (right) and Patrol Sgt. Herbert C. Stewart, examine the new vehicle.

In the picture at right, above, Sgt.

Stewart is using the two-way radio linking all guard stations in the Eden area. Radio communication will enable the patrol wagon to respond immediately to any emergency that arises anywhere in the Eden area, Major Pistilli said.

Top Weavers, Fixers

The Towel Mill's leading weavers and loom fixers are listed below for the most recent periods of record.

Weavers—W/E November 17

Dobby Terry ..... Walter Shelton
Jacquard Terry ..... Norman Rakes

Fixers—W/E November 17

Dobby Terry ..... James Turner
Jacquard Terry ..... Elwyn Arnold
Woodman Allen

Weavers—W/E November 10

Dobby Terry ..... Walter Shelton
Jacquard Terry ..... Lauren Via

Fixers—W/E November 10

Dobby Terry .... Richard Bocock
Jacquard Terry ..... Woodman Allen

Joseph S. Rowe Chosen For College 'Who's Who'

Joseph S. Rowe has been chosen for the 1968 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Joseph, who is majoring in business administration at the University of Texas, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Rowe. His father is manager of Fieldcrest's Dallas Service Center.

The annual directory of distinguished students has been published since 1934 and carries only the names of students whose academic standing, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential are decidedly above average.

Bedspread Finishing Enjoys Safety Dinner

—PICTURES ON PAGES 4 AND 5—

Employees of the Bedspread Finishing Mill have completed an average of 4,039 hours of safe work per employee and have earned their second consecutive safety award dinner.

The barbecue dinner was served recently right in the mill for all employees on each shift.

Under terms of the safety contest at Fieldcrest the Company gives a dinner to all employees of any mill in which the employees work an average of 2,000 hours without a disabling injury.

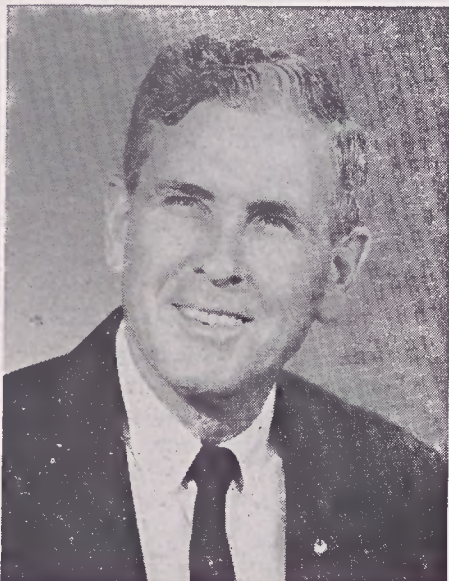

The Bedspread Finishing employees were congratulated by J. P. Foster, mill superintendent, and were thanked for their cooperation in preventing accidents.

Kenneth R. Baggett, Fieldcrest safety director, commended the employees for their interest and efforts in the prevention of injuries.

"I want to congratulate each member of the working force at the Bedspread Finishing Mill for this outstanding achievement," he said.

As of October 13, the mill had accumulated 690,696 man-hours of safe work since the last disabling injury occurred March 28, 1967. The employees are continuing their accident-free record to date.

Woodrow Murphy Completes 40-Year Record

JOSEPH W. MURPHY
... Long Record of Service ...

Joseph W. Murphy of the Spooling and Warping Department at the Blanket Mill completed 40 years of continuous service with the company November 5.

He has been presented with the Fieldcrest diamond-and-gold 40-year emblem and a letter of commendation from G. William Moore, president of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.

Mr. Murphy is a native of the Spray section of Eden and was first employed in the Cotton Carding Department at the Blanket Mill. He worked in that department for many years on various production jobs, operating slubbers, intermediates and various types of roving frames.

He served in the Army during World War II and upon his return from service became an oiler in the Cotton Carding Department. He later operated roving frames again but since 1954 has worked in the Spooling and Warping Department as a spooler server.

you're always

at the credit union

THE MILL WHISTLE