

Patterson Wins 'Current Affairs' Contest

Steve Patterson, a former resident of Eden and son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Patterson, has been chosen winner of the annual Current Affairs contest conducted by Time Magazine.

The Pattersons now live in Grifton, N. C., where Steve, 17, is a senior in high school. He was top scorer in the contest among the students at Grifton High School.

Before moving to Grifton, Steve attended the special class for advanced students at Central Elementary School in Eden for three years, and was an honor roll student and glee club member at Morehead High School.

At Grifton High School, Steve became a member of the Beta Club, the French Club and was on the basketball and baseball teams. He also played offensive and defensive quarterback for the Bulldogs at Grifton. He has been on the honor roll and the Principal's List each marking period.

His non-scholastic interests include playing the guitar with a combo, reading, swimming, hunting and bowling. He plans to further his education in science research.

Steve's mother, the former Maureen Smart, worked in the Accounting Department at General Offices before moving to Grifton. Steve's grandmother, Mrs. Leona Smart, works in the Blanket Mill Weave Room.

Amanda Rae Land

Amanda Rae Land, pictured here at six months, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Land of 710 Cedar St., Eden. Mrs. Land (Carolyn) works in the Production Control Department at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Amanda is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Land and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Belton. Mrs. Land works in the Bedsread Mill Spinning Department, and Mr. Belton works in the Blanket Mill Wool Card Room.

Connie Fuller

Connie Francis Fuller, who was five years old on February 10, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Fuller. Mr. Fuller works at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Major M. Church. Mr. Fuller works in the Blanket Mill Wool Card Room, and Mr. Church works in the Blanket Finishing Mill.

STEVE PATTERSON
.. Employee's Grandson Wins Honor ..

MRS. WILLIAM KNAPIK

Miss Murray, Mr. Knapik Exchange Wedding Vows

Mary Bernadette Murray, who is employed at the Cleveland Service Center, recently became the bride of James W. Knapik of Parma, Ohio. The noon Mass was held at St. Pius X Church, with the Mass being celebrated by the bride's uncles, the Rev. Edward Tulley and the Rev. Walter Tully.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard R. Murray, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Knapik.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to New York and are now living in Parma where Mr. Knapik teaches at St. Anthony of Padua. The bride, who joined Fieldcrest in March, 1965, is continuing her job as secretary to Randolph Johnston, the regional sales manager.

M. A. Taylor Is Named Assistant Foreman At Karastan Spinning Mill

Malcolm A. Taylor recently was promoted to assistant foreman of the Twisting, Winding and Reeling Department at the Karastan Spinning Mill, Greenville.

Formerly a quality control technician, he has been with Fieldcrest since February, 1964, except for the time he spent in military service.

Mr. Taylor is a graduate of Needham B. Broughton High School in Raleigh and presently is a candidate for an A.B. degree in history at East Carolina University. He is married to the former Rebecca Ann Davis of Winston-Salem and has a son, Patrick Arrington, age 18 months.

Debbie Williams

Debbie Williams celebrated her fifth birthday on February 24. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams. Mr. Williams works at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Debbie's grandmother, Mrs. Nannie Gallimore, formerly worked for Fieldcrest.

Maynie Renee Cox

Pictured here is Maynie Renee Cox, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Cox. Mrs. Cox (Christine) is a secretary in the Karastan Mill Production Control Department.

