40-Year Service Mark Reached By Taylor

John Earl Taylor, a warper tender in the Sheeting Mill Spinning Department, attained 40 years of continuous service with the Company August 19.

Mr. Taylor, a native of Eden, began work as a doffer in the Spinning Department of the old Nantucket Mill. He was transferred to the Sheeting Mill when sheeting operations were consolidated there in 1937. He has worked in the Spinning Department during all of his years with the Company.

In addition to doffing, he has worked as a spooler server, yarn server and as an apron cleaner. He has been a warper tender since February, 1968.
