

At drawing for prizes from among the names of those who pledged a "fair share" in the Eden YMCA Building Fund campaign, James E. Martin of Central Warehouse hands winning ticket for grand prize to M. B. Franklin, a coordinator in the Fieldcrest campaign. Representatives from the various mills looking on, front row, left to right, E. S. Barksdale, General Offices; Ada Clark, Bedspread Finishing; and Ola Mae Redmon, General Offices; back row, David Kemp, Karastan; Kermit Thompson, Bedspread Mill; Lucille Ziglar, General Offices; George Johnson, Blanket Mill; and Adolphus Walker, Sheeting Mill.

Y Fund Campaign Prizes Are Awarded

Frederick L. Brown, of the Carding Department at the Bedspread Mill, won the grand prize, a 23-inch screen color television set, in the drawing among the names of employees who pledged on the "three minutes a day" basis in the Eden YMCA Building Fund campaign.

In addition to the grand prize, drawings were conducted in each of the mill divisions and among the staff departments for a 9 x 12 oriental design Karastan rug, a week's vacation with pay, and two one-year family memberships in the new YMCA.

Winners in the various divisions were:

Bedspread Operation—Jerry F. Somers, Bedspread Finishing, 9 x 12 rug; Theodore DeJournette, Bedspread Finishing, week's vacation; Louise M. Carter, Yarn Preparation, and Raymond A. Ellington, Spinning, YMCA memberships.

Blanket Operation—Allen L. Hailey, Storage and Shipping, 9 x 12 rug; Samuel Blackstock, Wool Picking, week's vacation; Alva R. Hailey, Inspecting, and George Murphy, Stock Dyeing, YMCA memberships.

Karastan—Yvonne V. Meadows, Setting, 9 x 12 rug; Maggie N. Joyce, Setting, week's vacation; Charlie M. Dalton, Production Control, and Alfred E. Doss, Service Center, YMCA memberships.

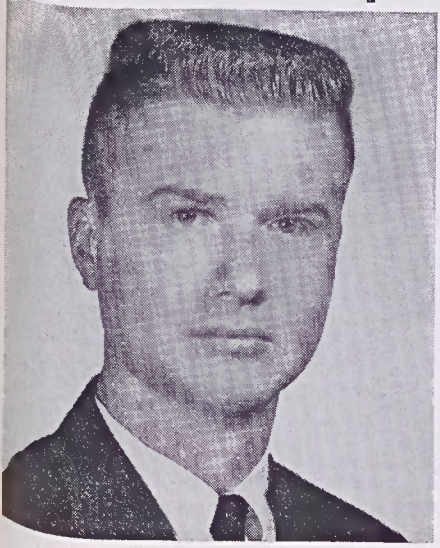

Sheeting Operation—Dewey A. Lawrence, Weave Room, 9 x 12 rug; Ruth S. DeJournette, Sheet Finishing, week's vacation; Mary B. Corum, Sheet Finishing, and Clifton L. Chumley, Sheet Finishing, YMCA memberships.

Staff Departments—Ella M. Hunter, of Spray Cost, 9 x 12 rug; Jane G. Reynolds, Medical Department, week's vacation; John N. Pinkard, Yard Crew, and David L. Bryan, Leaksville Industrial Engineering, YMCA memberships.

All the prizes were given by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. and were not taken from campaign funds.

In the highly-successful campaign at Fieldcrest, the employees gave outstandingly generous support to the YMCA project, pledging $220,000 to exceed by 47 percent their original goal of $150,000.

Boyce Named Superintendent Of Foremost

THOMAS E. BOYCE

Thomas E. Boyce, assistant superintendent of the Fieldale Towel Mill, was appointed superintendent of the Foremost Screen Print, Inc., plant at Stokesdale effective September 15. He reports to Felix A. Euforbia, president and general manager of Foremost Screen Print, Inc. and replaces Max W. Eggleston, who resigned.

Mr. Boyce formerly was superintendent of the Mount Holly Spinning Mill and earlier had served as general night foreman and as foreman of the Carding and Spinning Department at the Fieldale Towel Mill.

He is a native of Joanna, S. C., and joined Fieldcrest in 1961 as a management trainee at the Towel Mill. He received a B. S. degree in textile engineering from Clemson University and an M. S. degree in textile technology from the Institute of Textile Technology, Charlottesville, Va.

The Bedspread Mill (including Bedspread Finishing) won the President's Plaque to be given by President G. William Moore to the mill division with the highest percentage of employees pledging on the "three minutes a day" basis.

A similar plaque to be awarded among the staff departments was won by the Industrial Engineering Department with the Research and Engineering Department in the runner-up position.

The plaques, suitably inscribed, are to be presented to the winning units for permanent display at their respective locations.