

BERRY R. ROSE

Berry R. Rose Named Blkt. Shift Foreman

The promotion of Berry R. Rose from supervisory trainee to shift foreman in the Cotton Spinning Department at the Blanket Mill has been announced effective April 1.

Mr. Rose joined the Blanket Mill in August 1971 and worked briefly as a Jacquard weaver before entering the supervisory training program. He was assigned to the Blanket Mill Cotton Spinning Department in December 1971 and received additional training there until his appointment as a shift foreman.

A native of Danville, Va., Mr. Rose attended Piedmont College and the University of Maryland, engaging in general business studies. He is a veteran of eight years in the Air Force and served in Korea for one year. After his Air Force Service, he was a member of the Winston-Salem police force for four years.

Clifford Boyd

Clifford Boyd, who was eight years old March 21, is the son of Mrs. Adele Boyd, a second shift employee of the Bedspread Mill Weave Room. Clifford's brother, Charlie Boyd, is an employee of the Bedspread Finishing Mill and his brother-in-law, Jesse Manns, is a shift foreman at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Cross your bridges before you come to them and you have to pay the toll twice.

MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1972

Mrs. Santo, Karastan Secretary, Gets Award

Lillyan de Caro Santo of the Karastan Marketing Division's New York office was among 10 executive secretaries in the floor covering industry honored by the Anti-Defamation League at a dinner dance held at the Plaza Hotel in New York March 22.

Mrs. Santo is the private secretary of Walter B. Guinan, president of the Karastan and Laurelcrest Carpets Marketing Division.

The 10 women were presented with special plaques "in recognition and appreciation of their distinguished service and inspiring leadership in preserving liberty, counteracting bigotry and advancing the cause of human rights, dignity and equal opportunity."

The Anti-Defamation League is part of the B'nai Brith Jewish fraternal organization. It is devoted to combating bigotry and strengthening interfaith understanding as well as other programs.

The women were chosen by the ADL's Floor Covering and Allied Industries Division for this testimonial as being the "unsung heroes" of the floor covering field. Together, the ladies represented 298 years of service to the industry.

Mrs. Santo joined Karastan when her previous employer, the Nye-Wait Carpet Company, was acquired by Field-crest Mills, Inc. in 1958. She has been Mr. Guinan's secretary since that time.

LILLYAN DE CARO SANTO

The awards were presented to each of the recipients by their respective "bosses." In making the presentation to Mrs. Santo, Mr. Guinan stated that it gave him considerable pleasure to bestow this "well-deserved recognition to my friend and confidant."

Eden Paper Drive

The Eden Jaycees will sponsor a paper drive on Sunday, April 16 at 2 p.m. Don Henry, chairman of the drive, suggests that Eden residents start their spring cleaning by helping the Jaycees help the city.

He urges the residents to bundle and place newspapers on the curb on April 16 for the 2 p.m. pickup.

Card of Thanks

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation to our friends and neighbors for the cards, flowers, food, visits and calls at the sudden death of our husband and brother, Vernelle Burnette. We are grateful for every act of kindness shown us. May God bless each of you.

MRS. POLLY BURNETTE
JAMES BURNETTE

Johnny Dalton

Johnny Dalton celebrated his third birthday, Saturday, March 25, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carter of Greensboro. Johnny's mother, Mrs. Marie Dalton, is employed in the office at the Sheeting Mill.

KATHRYN SUSAN ETHRIDGE

Miss Ethridge To Study Radiologic Technology

Kathryn Susan Ethridge, a Morehead High School senior, has been accepted in the Memorial Hospital School of Radiologic Technology starting July 1.

Miss Ethridge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Ethridge. Her father is a shift foreman in the Napping Department at the Blanket Finishing Mill.

Join And Use The Credit Union