Committee Makes Allocation To Heart Fund

The Fieldale Community Fund has made a contribution of $1,200 to the Martinsville-Henry County Heart Fund as its first allocation of the budget year.

Making the presentation were Richard Bocoock, Weave Room, and Wanda Scott, Production Control, members of the Fieldale Community Fund Committee.

Accepting the check in a brief ceremony at the mill were John McVay, chairman of the Martinsville-Henry County Heart Association and Mrs. Bonnie Mitchell, secretary.

The Fieldale Community Fund will later make allocations to the Martinsville-Henry County United Fund, to the Cancer Crusade, Birth Defects, Fieldale Fire Department, Fieldale Rescue Squad, Crippled Children's Ward at Roanoke Hospital and other agencies and services benefiting the people of the Fieldale area.

Under the Fieldale plan only one solicitation is made in the Fieldale Towel Mill each year.

The money raised in the campaign is used for the Fieldale Community Fund and other authorized fund drives. The funds are administered by a committee composed of representatives from the various departments of the Towel Mill.

CORETTA JONES

Jones Twins Have Outstanding College Records

Loretta and Coretta Jones, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Mack Jones, recently received recognition for their academic achievements at Lynchburg College.

Loretta, who is a psychology major, was named to last semester's Dean's List with a 3.5 average out of a possible 4.0. Coretta, a sociology major, earned a 3.3 average for honorable men-
