Congratulations To More New Grads

Additional college and university graduates from Fieldcrest families are shown on this page. Congratulations are extended to the parents and to the new graduates, many of whom have won honors for scholastic achievement and in extracurricular activities.

To date, The Mill Whistle has published the pictures of all the graduates about whom information has been received. If there are others, the parents are invited to send in pictures and information for publication in the next issue of The Mill Whistle.

Frances Marcella Hicks graduated from Winston-Salem State University with a BS degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hicks. Her father is employed in the Blanket Stock Department at the Blanket Warehouse.

Danny G. Higgins received his BA degree in history at Pfeiffer College.

He is working in the Blanket Mill this summer and plans to attend the Wake Forest Law School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gentry Higgins. His mother (Nannie) works in the Cutting and Sewing Department at the Blanket Finishing Mill and his father is a former employee of the Blanket Mill Weave Room.

Ruth Sharon Hylton received her BA degree in elementary education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Her father, John Hylton, is employed at the Karastan Service Center and her mother, Ruth, at the Blanket Warehouse Office. John Hylton, Jr., the graduate's brother, is employed in Karastan Scheduling.

Cathy Lynn Pruitt graduated from Western Carolina University with a BS degree in health and physical education. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs.

R. Melvin Pruitt. Her father is general foreman of the Blanket Greige Mill Inspecting Department and her mother (Lorine) is a clerk in Sheet Finishing Mill Accounting.

Florence H. Simpson graduated from Winston-Salem State University with a BS degree and will be employed in the Eden school system in the fall. Her husband, Bobby R. Simpson, is an employee of the Carding Department at the Bedspread Mill and her mother, Lena Mae Hampton, is employed in the Quilling Department at the Bedspread Mill.

Linda Thompson received her BA degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where she was a Dean's List student. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson. Her father is a weaver at the Karastan Rug Mill.
