

Retired Sales Official Has Good Luck Fishing

Owen C. Due, retired sales representative, is shown with lucky catch of 18 crappies, each weighing 1½ to two pounds. An enthusiastic fisherman, Mr. Due retired in December, 1971, and lives in St. Louis, Mo.

He enjoyed a sales career of 49 years with Marshall Field & Company and Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. He was Fieldcrest's St. Louis district manager for several years and from 1962 until his retirement he was midwestern representative for St. Marys products.

Seventh Grade Student Has Perfect Attendance

Denise Rhodes, who recently completed the seventh grade at Holmes Junior High School, has neither missed a day nor been tardy since she started school in 1965.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry G. Rhodes. Mrs. Rhodes (Carol) is secretary to M. B. Franklin, manager, compensation and personnel planning.

Bowling Trophy To Be Displayed

In an informal ceremony held recently Nathan Hicks, Blanket Warehouse bowling team captain, placed the team's championship trophy in the Blanket Warehouse trophy case.

The team won first place in the Fieldcrest Men's Evening Bowling League by defeating Blanket Finishing Mill 3,053 pins to 2,937.

Present for the ceremony were, in Rosenthal, manager-Blanket Warehouse and Customer Service; and William R. Wilkerson, Jr., team member and second hand in the Blanket Warehouse Storage and Shipping Department.

Amburn Children Have Joint Birthday Party

A combined birthday party was given recently for Timothy Roy and Sue Denise Amburn by their mother, Nelda Amburn, at their home on Glovenia Street, Eden.

The party was in celebration of Tim's 12th birthday and Sue's eighth. The honorees received many nice gifts.

Refreshments were served to the 24 guests and games were played. Prizes were awarded to a number of the guests.

Sue and Tim are the niece and nephew of Mary Evans, an employee in the Bedsread Inspecting Department.

Class Mascot

Carol Elizabeth White, three years old, was mascot for the 1972 graduating class at Wentworth High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny A. White. Mr. White is employed in the Mechanical Development Department and Mrs. White (Kaye) is an order clerk in the Bedsread Finishing Office.

Carol's aunt, June Carter, is a member of the 1972 graduating class at Wentworth.
