Hankins And Edwards Promotions Announced

D. L. Hankins has been promoted to manager, production planning and control for the rug and carpet division, reporting to J. P. Kitchens, division vice president-rug and carpet manufacturing. Mr. Hankins formerly was manager of Karastan production control.

K. L. Edwards, previously assistant manager, was promoted to manager of Karastan production control, reporting to Mr. Hankins. D. K. Manuel, manager of Laurelcrest production control, also reports to Mr. Hankins.

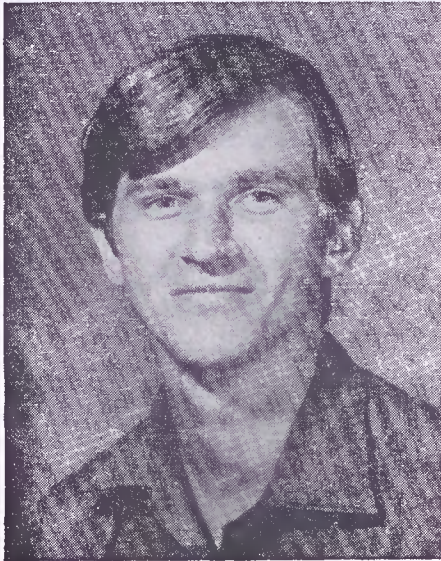

A native of Eden, Mr. Hankins has been with Karastan continuously since 1956. He was first employed as a control tester and then was a production control technician for six years.

He became an administrative assistant in 1963 and was a data project analyst in 1965 and 1966. He was appointed assistant manager of Karastan production control January 1, 1967, and was promoted to manager of Karastan production control in April, 1971.

Mr. Edwards is a native of Cascade, Va., and received his B.S. degree in management from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He has been employed at the Karastan Rug Mill since 1968. He worked as an industrial engineer until he became a staff assistant in the plant manager's office in April, 1971. He was named assistant manager of Karastan production control in October, 1971.

New Shift Foreman

George Beliczky has been promoted from supervisor trainee to shift foreman in the Yarn Preparation Department at the Bedsread Mill.

Mr. Beliczky began employment at the Bedsread Mill in 1968 as a roving frame tender in the Carding Department. In 1969, he went to the Karastan Rug Mill as a rug server.

He worked in various classifications at the Karastan Rug Mill until he became a pre-supervisory trainee in 1972. He became a supervisory trainee in February, 1973.
