W. B. Guinan Honored At Karastan Sales Meeting

Walter B. Guinan, former President of the Karastan and Laurelcrest marketing divisions, was honored with a special "This Is Your Life" presentation on June 5 during the Karastan sales meeting held at Pine Needles Lodge near Southern Pines, N.C.

Mr. Guinan, who continues to serve as Senior Vice-President of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., and as a member of the Board of Directors, recently exercised an option in his employment contract for reduced responsibilities. He currently is responsible for international licensing agreements, acquisitions and new technology in carpet manufacturing.

The special program, which was unveiled as a surprise to Mr. Guinan following dinner, used a series of slides tracing Mr. Guinan's life and career. Many of the pictures projected were obtained from relatives, friends and former business associates and included old photographs showing Mr. Guinan as an infant, a young boy, a teen-ager and young man. Other photos illustrated his career starting as a sample boy with the Bigelow Carpet Co. in 1928 through various positions as salesman, stylist and head of design for that company.

The balance of the program featured highlights of his service with the carpet division of Fieldcrest. This covered the period from the time he joined Karastan as Sales Manager in 1954 through his term as President of Karastan — and later Laurelcrest — from 1957 to April of this year.

Mr. Guinan's statesmanlike contributions to the carpet industry, his humanitarian activities, and many of his personal interests such as sports and travel were also described.

The program was narrated by George V. Grulich, Vice-President of Marketing Services for Karastan and Laurelcrest. The narration was mixed with a number of taped comments from some of Mr. Guinan's friends and colleagues, including Hugh W. Feeley, former Vice-President of Sales for the carpet division, and Al Lark, former Karastan salesman, who are both now retired and who were on hand at the sales meeting. The narration and comments were purposely filled with humorous references and anecdotes, well appreciated by the audience which consisted of the Karastan sales staff and executives from manufacturing and the corporate office. William C. Battle, President of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., R. A. Harris, Executive Vice-President, and A. L. Jackson, Senior Vice-President Manufacturing also took part in this testimonial to Mr. Guinan.

Following this special program, John F. Deery, President of the Karastan and Laurelcrest marketing divisions, presented a hand-engrossed illuminated plaque to Mr. Guinan on behalf of the sales staffs of both divisions. The plaque cited the contributions of Mr. Guinan to the company, the carpet industry and to his fellow men. The program concluded with a series of live testimonials by many of Mr. Guinan's colleagues in the audience.

A similar testimonial program to Mr. Guinan was presented following week at Laurelcrest sales meeting also at Pine Needles Lodge.

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) Because I've taken a job, I'll have to get someone to take care of my child. For the purposes of the child care deduction, will it make any difference whether I pay a babysitter to come into my home or take my child to a day care center?

A) Yes, it will make a difference. The maximum deduction for child care services performed within your home is $400 a month. However, for child care services performed outside your household, the maximum monthly deduction is limited to $200 a month for one child, $300 for two children, or $400 for three or more children.

Q) Are child care expenses for teenagers deductible?

A) Your child may qualify for the child care deduction if he is under 15, if you are entitled to claim an exemption for him, if you meet all the other requirements for the deduction, including the income limitation, and if the child is physically or mentally incapable of caring for himself. You may qualify for the deduction regardless of his age.
