

Non Woven Employees Earn Barbecue

Employees at the Non Woven Mill enjoyed a safety barbecue on Friday, January 25, on all three shifts.

The employees had achieved a total of 97,632 hours worked without a lost-time accident, an average of 2,032 hours per employee since the last lost-time accident which occurred on November 26, 1972.

Non Woven supervisors commended the employees for this fine safety record and urged them to continue their safe working habits.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston in Jerusalem

Deadline Is Near For Scholarships

(Continued from Page One)

Application forms may be obtained from the area personnel managers or mill personnel offices; from the Employment Office in the Fieldcrest General Offices Building at Eden; or by writing to Mr. M. B. Franklin, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. 326 East Stadium Drive, Eden, N.C. 27288.

The scholarships, each worth $4,000 over the four years of college, are given to assist employees and children of employees in obtaining a college education.

Chosen By Committee

The scholarships are awarded to high school graduates who are entering college for the first time. The recipient must plan to enroll in an academic four-year college or university in a course of studies leading to a recognized undergraduate academic degree.

Recipients are chosen by the Scholarship Committee on the basis of academic aptitude, citizenship and financial need. Financial need is the determining factor in choosing among students meeting the other requirements.

Employees and children of employees are eligible to apply for a scholarship if the employee has been with the company continuously for one year or more.

Correction

When Odessa F. Turner retired January 1, she was incorrectly listed in The Mill Whistle as having worked at the Karastan Rug Mill. She retired from the Fieldale Towel Mill and should have been so listed. She had 25 years of continuous service at the Fieldale plant, all of the time in the Sewing Department. The Mill Whistle is glad to make this correction.

Mack M. Johnson Named Member Of ASTD Board

Mack M. Johnson, a training supervisor in the Fieldcrest Training Department, has been named a member of the board of directors of the Piedmont chapter of the American Society for Training and Development. He was installed January 22, at the group's monthly meeting held at Guilford Technical Institute, Greensboro.

The Piedmont chapter of ASTD was formed in 1973, having previously been a part of the North Carolina-Virginia chapter. The group has 51 members at present.

Stated objectives of ASTD are to achieve better utilization of human ability and potential in business, industry and government and to provide leadership in the field of personnel training and development in order to assist management to develop and maintain a competent work force.

MACK M. JOHNSON

Another of the association's goals is to promote an understanding of training and development as a basic responsibility of management.

Hill Named Section Foreman

C. Richard Hill, Jr. has been named a section foreman in Woolen System Picking and Dyeing at the Blanket Greige Mill.

Mr. Hill joined Fieldcrest in 1962 as an inspector server at the Bedsread Mill. After working as a shearer tender and production control clerk at that mill he became a supervisory trainee at the Blanket Greige Mill in 1968, and an assistant foreman in 1969.

He became a management trainee later in 1969 at the Blanket Finishing Mill, and a shift foreman in 1970. He was a shift foreman at the Non Woven

C. RICHARD HILL, JR.

Mill immediately prior to his latest promotion.

Retirement Can Be Exciting

Retirement for many ex-Fieldcresters has meant a full life of travel and excitement. Sometimes, there's a bit too much excitement, as is demonstrated by the experience of Randolph C. Johnston, a retired divisional vice president of the Fieldcrest Marketing Division, and his wife, Anita.

On a recent trip to the Middle East, the Johnston's arrival in Israel coincided with the shooting down of 13 Syrian planes and they also had a front row seat for Israeli troop movement to the Syrian border, only 30 miles away. All in all, it proved to be a very exciting trip.

Happily, the Johnstons arrived home safe and sound. As proof, they sent the photo shown of what Mr. Johnston calls the "Scottish Brigade" of the Israeli army. In reality, it is of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston in Jerusalem.

Mr. Johnston was with Fieldcrest for more than 30 years, serving in the latter years as regional manager of the Lake States Region.

Laugh A Little

As the guest was leaving the small village hotel, he suddenly turned to the not-too-bright-looking boy leaning against the desk.

"Quick son," he called, "run up to Room 30 and see if I left my brief case on the dresser. Hurry! my train leaves in minutes."

A few minutes later, the boy rushed back. "Yes, sir," he panted. "It's there all right."

Bloodmobile

(Continued from Page Two)

Stephens, Gabriel F. Thomas. Karastan Service Center — Ethel A. Brim, Barbara L. Crowder, Irene E. Crowder, Ronald Eggleston, Macie M. Powell.

Purchasing — Jim Huffman, Temple H. Land, Marilyn Lowler, Alisa A. Spires.

Research & Engineering — Jack W. Bryant, Wayne Lawson, Jean MacIsaac, Carl Wortham. Sheet Finishing — Edith Y. Parker.

Sheeting Mill — Otis Broadnax, George Stroud, Sherman G. Wilson.