A member of Pine Level Free Will Baptist church, she is secretary of the youth organization, sings in the Youth Choir, and is past president of the YFA.

Miss Crocker plans to attend a North Carolina college after graduation from high school and major in some area of science.

Glaucoma Clinic

The Eden Lions Club and the Lions of Rockingham County are sponsoring a glaucoma and diabetes clinic which entitles anyone to an examination for glaucoma and diabetes without charge.

The clinic, which will continue throughout 1974, is held on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at the former Municipal Building-Rockingham County Health Department, on Boone Road.

The procedure, which takes only about 15 minute, is painless.

The clinic is being held as a public service by the Lions of Rockingham County.

NCF Golfers Begin New Season

NCF golfers have begun a new season in the NCF Mulligan Tournament.

Sixty-eight employees participated in what has become a bi-monthly event. The tournament was held on March 24 at Foxwood Golf course.

First place winners were Dick Raddin, Dave Moore, Lindsey Sells, Gib Moore.

Second place winners were Carter Simerson, John Legrand, Troy Lanning, and Wayne Myers. Third place winners were: Gene Barber, Gary Miller, Harry Lee Brinkley, and Henry Hall.

The Mulligan tournament was begun over a year ago and has become a very successful event that both management and employees look forward to each time.

Promoted

Jackson J. Perkins, son of Mrs. Jack Perkins, has been promoted to sergeant at Mill Valley Force Station in California.

Sergeant Perkins serves a unit of the Aerospace Command. He is a 1973 graduate of Navato Adult High School. His wife, Brenda, is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Mims of Beaufort and Robert Dillard of Edenton.

Sergeant Perkins is the brother of Lelia Mims, who is employed in the Channel at the Blanket Finishing

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank the Fieldcrest employees who performed so many acts of kindness for Kay Weaver Edwards during her illness for the many kindnesses of the family after her death.
