

Employees At Foremost Enjoy Annual Family Picnic

From 250 to 300 persons attended the annual plant picnic at Foremost Screen Print employees and their families Saturday, September 14, at the Stokesdale Elementary School.

The outing was an all-day fair lasting from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. with the employees' entire families invited. The picnic activities were under the direction of the Foremost Screen Print supervisors and staff personnel.

Charlie Walker, foreman of the Yard Goods Printing Department, had charge of the games and contests which included horseshoe pitching, fishing contests, sack races, softball and other games.

Robert Slate, foreman of the Warehouse, was in charge of the cooking, assisted by a number of management and staff personnel. The food featured grilled hamburgers and hot dogs with all the trimmings, cold drinks, coffee, cake squares and cookies.

The drawings for attendance prizes were conducted by Carlene Wood of the Purchasing Department. The winners were as follows: Art Lash, Plant Service, a bedspread; Amos Collins, Plant Service, a sheet and pillow case set; and Viola Williams, a blanket.

Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Rochelle of Salisbury. Mr. Rochelle is president and general manager of the North Carolina Finishing Company division and of Foremost Screen Print. Other invited guests were Robert L. Moore, Eden, a regional personnel manager; and W. O. Marlowe, Eden, editor of The Mill Whistle.

Pictures on this page show scenes at the picnic as the Foremost employees and members of their families enjoyed the annual outing.

Carlene Wood (Purchasing) holds Anna Poteat.

Henderson Mabe, Macie Mabe (Print Department) and Esther Mabe

Annie Ruth Morris (Print Department) and family

Tina Morris

Tom Holbrook, Tom Boyce, Robert Slate and Jim Poteat

Interested visitor

Eva Freeman, Jo Ann Daniels, Melissa Daniels and Joel Freeman

Susan Fulp, Yvonne Pegram and Chris Winfrey