

Here Are The Rankin Children

Pictured are the seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rankin, Jr., of Charlotte, N.C. Their mother, Fleeta, is employed as a tailing machine operator at the Mt. Holly Spinning Mill.

The children are Kevin Bernard, three years old; Candace Diane, eight years old; Sherry Ann, nine years old; Monica Lynette, 12 years old; Valerie Rosetta, 13 years old; Ronald Eugene, 15 years old; and Derrick Antonio, 16 years old.

Kevin Bernard

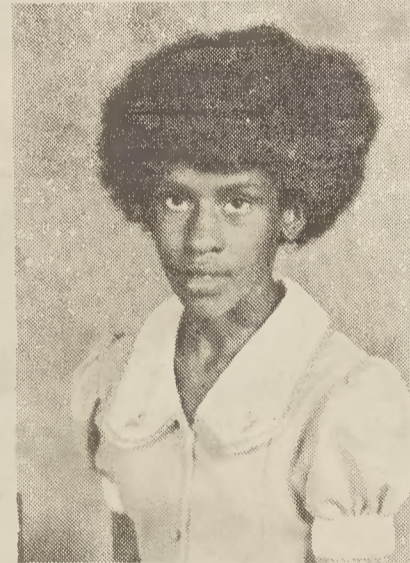

Candace Diane

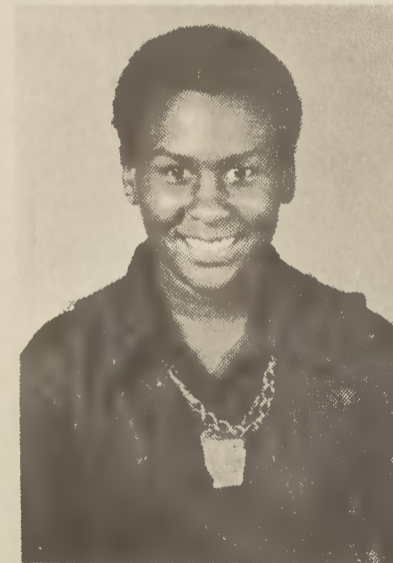

Sherry Ann

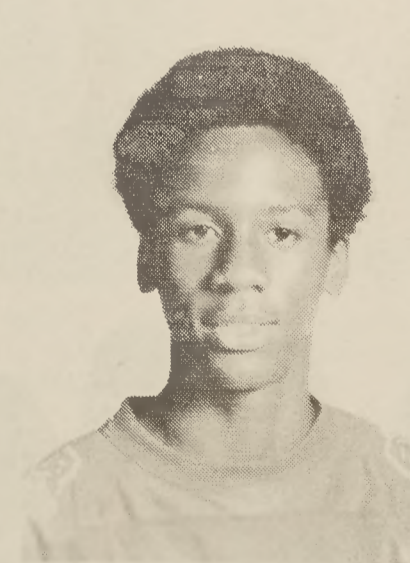

Monica Lynette

Valerie Rosetta

Ronald Eugene

Derrick Antonio

Columbus And Phenix City Employees Contribute Generously To United Way

The Columbus Towel Mill and the Phenix City Mill employees once again have done an outstanding job in supporting the 1974 United Way Campaign.

These employees have shown that Fieldcrest employees strongly support their community.

The following Departments will be awarded Bronze plaques for their outstanding contributions as Fair Share Givers: Opening, Carding, Winding, Spooling, Twisting, Warping, Quilling, Slashing, Spinning, Draw Tie Pattern, and Greige Inspection.

Also, Dye House, Bleachery, Plant Services, Cotton Warehouse, Packing, Storage-Shipping, Mill Accounting, Design, Purchasing, and Industrial Relations.

Also, Order Billing, Customer Services, Fieldcrest Store, Plant Manager's Office, Div. Vice President, Production, Industrial Engineering, and Sample Room.

Honor awards will be presented to the following Departments for their contributions made: Weave, Towel Finishing, Ceco, Packing, Washcloth, Shipping, Production Control, Medical, and Quality Control.

In addition to the awards to be made, the following employees' names were picked from a drawing of Fair Share Contributors, on November 18. Towel sets were awarded to: Mamie B. Davis, Desibee Stanford, Carl S. Layfield, Charlie Dixon, Barbara Morriss, John A. Holland, Clara Byrd, and Albert Davis.

The Grand Prize, a 19" Zenith TV, was won by Barbara Phillips. Barbara is a sweeper in the Phenix City Finishing Plant. All prizes were presented by Chris Kametches, div. vice president, W. S. Ayscue, plant manager of the Columbus Towel Mill, and R. W. Harris, plant manager of Towel Finishing in Phenix City. Once again, "Thanks to you, it's working!"

Sean Bowers

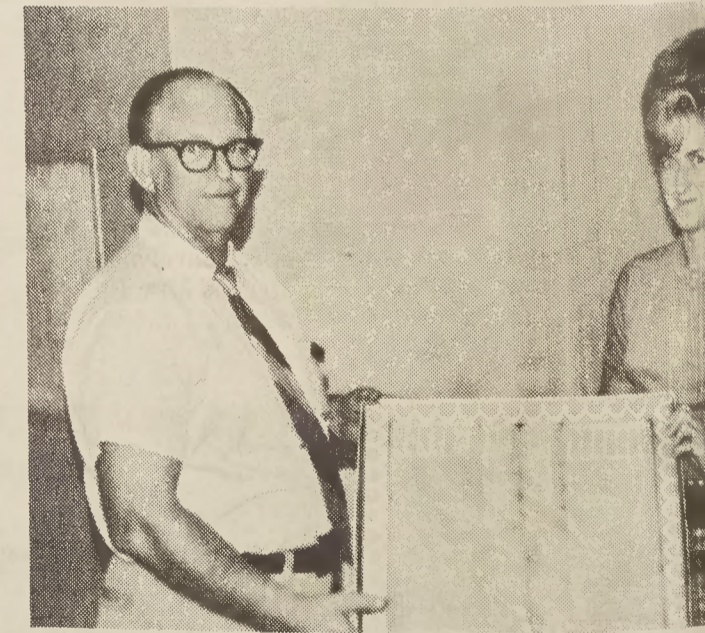

Sean Alphonso Bowers, fourteen months old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso H. Bowers, Jr. His mother, Marva, is employed in the Insurance Department at the General Offices. Grandparents are Mrs. Nell White Rose of Salisbury, N.C. and Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso H. Bowers, Sr., of Clarksville, Va.

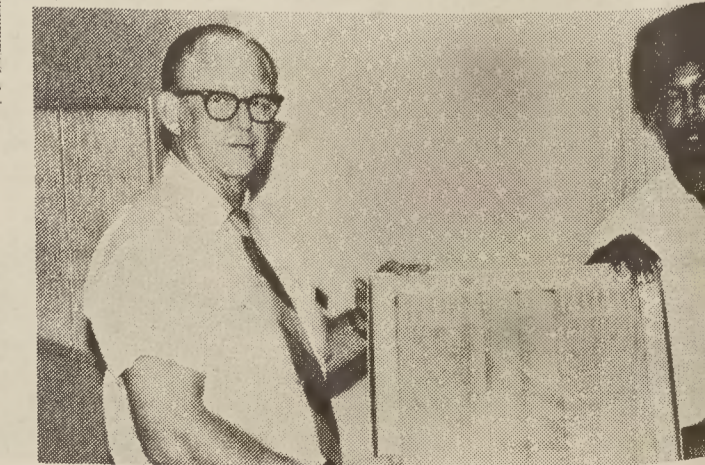

Barbara Phillips won the grand prize, a Zenith television set. At right is Chris Kametches.

Dessie B. Stanford was one of the winners of a...

Barbara Morris, shown with Lewis Dallas, a towel set.

Charlie Dixon receives towel set from L... superintendent of Weaving.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

from the

Mill Whistle Staff