

Record Crowds Attend Eden, Fieldale Christmas Parties

Record crowds of children and their parents attended the Christmas parties for the children of Fieldcrest employees at Fieldale and Eden Sunday afternoon Dec. 15. Scenes at the parties are pictured on these pages.

The party for the children of employees at the Fieldcrest Towel Mill was held at 2 p. m. in the auditorium of Fieldale-Collinsville High School. S. R. Culligan, Fieldcrest personnel manager, was the master of ceremonies. He welcomed those attending. Robert Williams of the Service Department read the Christmas story from the Gospel of Luke and gave the prayer.

Mamie Dickson of the Sheeting Mill Accounting Department and Harold Squires of the Draper Industrial Engineering Department presented musical entertainment to the children in the group singing of Christmas songs. This was followed by the main feature of the program, Harrington and his trained dogs act.

The children's party at Eden followed at 4 p. m. in the auditorium at Morehead High School. J. B. O'Neal, Fieldcrest representative of community and government relations, was the master of ceremonies and extended Christmas greetings on behalf of the management of the company.

Mrs. Dickson and Mr. Squires presented musical entertainment and led the children in the singing of Christmas songs. Mr. Harrington and his trained dogs act also formed at the Eden party.

At the close of each party Santa Claus made his appearance and greeted the children. Santa was assisted by company officials in handing out Christmas stockings filled with candy to the children as they left the auditorium.

In addition to the parties at Fieldale and Eden, Christmas parties and other Christmas festivities were held at various Fieldcrest plants in outlying locations.

Fieldale

