

People Make A Company

Some Representative Employees Of The Alexander Sheeting Mill

VIRGINIA LOWDERMILK is an inspector in the Inspecting Department at the Alexander Sheeting Mill in Forest City. She joined Fieldcrest in 1941 and resides in Brookmont Heights, Forest City.

LEONARD MURRAY is a mechanic No. 1 in the Plant Service Department at the Alexander Sheeting Mill. He began employment with Fieldcrest in 1952 and resides on Route 4, Forest City.

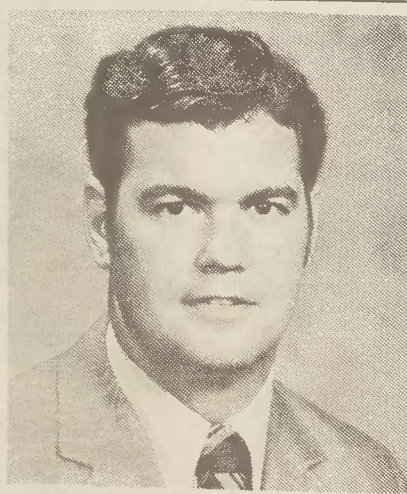

Meet the Supervisors

Frank M. Campbell is superintendent of carding and spinning at the Draper Sheeting Mill. He is a graduate of Western Carolina University with a B.S. degree in industrial management and worked on various jobs at Fieldcrest during the summers between college years.

He joined Fieldcrest as a management trainee at the Bedsread Mill in June, 1965. Entering military service in February, 1966, he served for three years and was in Vietnam 1967-68.

Upon completing his military service he returned to Western Carolina University and graduated. He rejoined Fieldcrest in July, 1969, as a management trainee at the Draper Sheeting Mill.

He was promoted to department foreman in the Carding Department in June, 1970, and served in that capacity until his appointment as superintendent of carding and spinning. In the latter position he succeeded R. E. (Ed) New, who retired under the Fieldcrest retirement program after 41 years of continuous service.

FRANK CAMPBELL

During his off-hours from the mill, Mr. Campbell's main interest is raising Black Angus cattle. Also, he is just completing the restoration of the old home in which he lives in the Ridgeway, Va., area near Eden. The house was built in 1808 while Thomas Jefferson was President and is believed to be the oldest brick home in Henry County, Va.

Mr. Campbell is a native of Eden and was halfback and captain of the 1959 state championship football team at Morehead High School in 1959. He also played three years as a wingback at Western Carolina.

He is married to the former Joye Reeves, a native of Charlotte. They have two children, a son, Frank, Jr., three years old, and a daughter, Kelly 2½ months old.

Top Weavers And Fixers

Fieldale Towel Mill

Weavers W/E March 23

Dobby Terry Donald Bowman
Jacquard Terry Frank Carter

Fixers W/E March 23

Dobby Terry Melvin Clark
Jacquard Terry Phillip Marshall

Weavers W/E March 16

Dobby Terry Mattie Lackey
Jacquard Terry Robert Ferguson

Fixers W/E March 16

Dobby Terry William Kendrick
Jacquard Terry Frank Fulcher

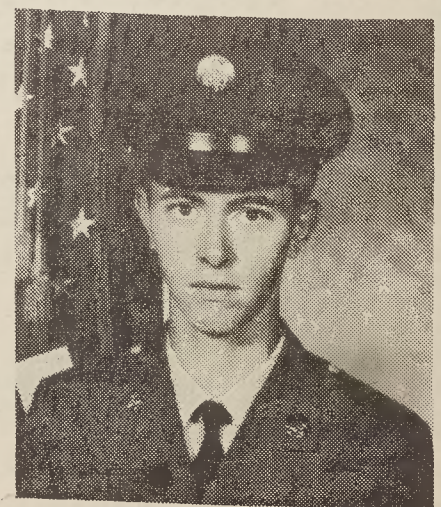

WILLIAM F. S.

Holt Completes 7-Week Course

Pvt. Kenneth R. Holt, U. S. Army, has completed a seven-week mechanics course at Ft. Knox, Ky.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie R. Holt Jr., of Route 1, Oak Ridge. His mother (Betty) is employed in the Inspecting Department at the Foremost Screen Print Plant at Stokesdale.

Pvt. Holt, who is 19 years old, was trained to repair engines, transmissions and the fuel, electrical and hydraulic systems of Army Tracked vehicles.

KENNETH R. HOLT

Promo

William F. S. promoted to manager of Dallas Service Center April 1. He replaced Mr. Shelton who retired under the retirement program.

Mr. Shelton replaced Kiser, division vice president, distribution and engineering. Fieldcrest in 1960. He was foreman at the I. Center and became manager in January.

If you'd like to take a vacation in one of the places where few people your wife read the THE MIL