Hugh Edwards receives first pension check from J. P. Foster, general manager of the Scottsboro Rug Mill.

Happenings At Scottsboro

Hugh Edwards, an employee of the Storage and Shipping Department, on May 1 became the first person to retire from the Scottsboro Rug Mill under the Fieldcrest Pension Plan.

He had five years of service under the Pension Plan, dating from the time that Fieldcrest purchased the mill but had 21 years of continuous service at the Scottsboro location.

He had worked with the Maples Company which built the plant and with J. P. Stevens & Co. who owned the facility prior to the purchase by Fieldcrest in 1969.

Mr. Edwards was presented his first pension check by J. P. Foster, general manager of the Scottsboro Rug Mill.

Give News To Your Reporter

Ann Midkiff is The Mill Whistle reporter for the Bedspread Finishing Mill. Employees there are encouraged to turn in news, pictures and "Buy . . . Sell . . . Swap" items to her for publication in The Mill Whistle.

Mrs. Midkiff has continuous service with Fieldcrest since 1958, and during nearly all of that time has worked on her present job of office clerk in the Cutting and Sewing Department.

She is a native of Rockingham County, the daughter of Robert Rodgers, a long-service loom fixer at the Karastan Rug Mill, who is now retired. Mrs. Midkiff is a graduate of Wentworth High School and of the comptometry school in Charlotte.

A member of the Leaksville Moravian Church, she is vice president of the Women's Fellowship and an active member of the Ladies' Circle. She has been a teacher and assistant teacher in the Sunday School for many years.

For hobbies she enjoys camping and sewing. She has made her own clothes for many years and also does some craft work. She is a charter member of the Eden Camping Club and has served in most of the offices in that organization. She currently is the club's chaplain.

She is married to Harley A. Midkiff, a sample coordinator in the Product Development Department. They have one son, Michael, a member of the 1975 graduating class at Morehead High School. The Midkiffs live at 706 Hunter Street, Eden.

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank the many friends, especially those at the Blanket Griega Mill, for their kindness to me and my family during my illness. Your thoughtful acts and generosity will always be remembered.
