

Veteran Employees Honored By Company

(Continued from Page One)

He then recognized the four retired 50-year members present: A. D. Weaver, Specials Department; Allie M. Houchins, Sheet Finishing Mill; T. Earl Bondurant and John W. (Bill) Page, Draper Sheeting Mill.

Entertainment was furnished by "The Fieldcresters", a gospel-singing quartet whose songs were greatly enjoyed. W. O. Blackwell, foreman of the Sheeting Inspecting Department gave the invocation preceding the luncheon.

New members welcomed into the club were: Virginia H. Ashworth, Pricie S. Gantt, Raymond H. McCracken, Edgar Hughey Neal and Brack H. Wiles, Draper Sheeting Mill; Zelda T. Ferris and William R. Kiser, General Offices; and James W. Talley, Specials Department.

A. D. Weaver (left) with approximately 51½ years is greeted by Guy Medford, 48½ years, representing 100 years of continuous service.

Long-service employees, left to right, are Carl Williams, Earl Bondurant, Clarence Belcher, Garrett Cochran.

Mike McDaniel pours coffee for Allie M. Houchins, 50-year employee.

W. F. Crumley greets 50-year men J. W. Page and T. E. Dondurant.

Some of the 25-Year Club members are shown enjoying the meal.