

Winners In UF Drawings

Fieldcrest employees in outlying locations have once again shown generous support for their various United Fund campaigns. Pictures on this page show some of the lucky winners in drawings which have been held at four locations.

JERRY G. KALLAM

Foremost

In the drawings held for All Fair Share contributors to the United Fund campaign at the Foremost Screen Print Plant, Jerry G. Kallam, a shift foreman in the Yard Goods Department was the first prize winner. His prize was a comforter, pillow shams and a colony dust ruffle in the Missoni

CHRISTOPHER CHANDLER

Diagonal Dot pattern. Second prize winner was Christopher L. Chandler, print machine operator in the Unit Print Department, who won a blanket in the Meissen Rose pattern.

The winner of the special drawing between the Warehouse and the Sample Department, both of which had 100 percent of their employees giving or pledging a Fair Share, was John Earl Manns, a checker and fork lift driver in the Warehouse. He won a set of sheets and pillowcases in the Patience Rose Pattern.

FIELDALE—JOE TURNER was the lucky winner of a 19-inch black and white television set in the drawing among Fair Share givers.

Greenville

Debra B. Jenkins was the lucky winner of the Oriental Reflections rug in the drawing among Fair Share contributors. She is a reeler in the Wind and Twist Department.

Winners of Oriental Reflections rugs in drawings at the Karastan Spinning Mill were Louise Haddock, first shift spinner; Carlton Randolph, roving man, second shift; and Edna Eakes, third shift spinner.

DEBRA JENKINS with Wayne Green, plant superintendent, Karastan Worsted.

EDNA EAKES with William Manning, shift foreman, Karastan Spinning.

CARLTON RANDOLPH with Hertford Parker, shift foreman, Karastan Spinning.

LOUISE HADDOCK with Charlie Davis, department supervisor, Karastan Spinning.

Laurelcrest

Four employees in the Laurelcrest Plants, Laurel Hill, were lucky winners of 19-inch portable black and white television sets in a drawing held for Fair Share contributors to the United Fund campaign.
