Adams' Mules Win 4 Trophies

Charlie C. Adams came home from the 1975 Mule Day Event in Benson with four trophies won by his mules and ponies.

He brought home trophies for the ugliest mule, the oldest mule, first place in the pulling contest (his pair of ponies pulled a total of 2,800 pounds), and first place in the single pony pulling contest (his pony pulled a total of 1,200 pounds).

In addition to the contests, Mr Adams and his ponies and mules are a featured attraction in the parade which is always part of the Mule Day Event.

Mr. Adams is a service operator in the Components Department at the Automatic Blanket Plant at Smithfield.

She Makes Frogs, Pincushions To Earn Money For Club Project

Frogs and pincushion hats? An unlikely combination, but one that Jacqueline McBride has converted into a very successful fund-raising project.

Mrs. McBride, a member of the Eden Y's Menettes, has raised $500 to be used by this organization to help pay for the renovation of the YMCA swimming pool in the Draper section.

She has raised the money by making fat, colorful frogs and attractive pincushions shaped like hats. She began the project alone, but it became so successful that now other ladies in the Y's Menettes are also making the items. They have sold more than 300 so far.

The extensive repairs have already been made on the YMCA pool at Draper and now both the Y's Men and the Y's Menettes are busy trying to raise the $20,000 needed to pay for them. About $1,500 has been raised already. The goal is to pay the entire amount in three years.

Mrs. McBride, a physical lab technician in the Quality Control Department, Eden, turned in her $500 in rather an unusual way at the annual Christmas banquet held by the Y's Men and Y's Menettes in December.

She presented the group with the original "Freddy" the frog. Unlike his froggy friends, Freddy wears a top hat, and inside his hat were tucked five crisp 100 dollar bills.

Mrs. McBride also received a surprise herself at the banquet. She was named Y's Menette of the Year by the organization. Another Fieldcrest was named Y's Man of the Year. He is R. L. Glasgow, superintendent of the Cut and Sew, Packaging and Warehousing Department at the Blanket Finishing Mill.

The frog and pincushion project will continue as long as people want to buy the items. Mrs. McBride says. There are now eight Y's Menettes involved, two of whom are also Fieldcrest employees. They are Ruby Hairfield, Blanket Mill Accounting, and Irene Squires, Blanket Weave Room.

Other fund-raising projects in which the Y's Men and Y's Menettes participate are the annual softball tournaments during the summer and the sale of stew.
