

Attends Meet In Washington

At a recent meeting of the Furniture Industry Consumer Advisory Panel (FICAP) held in Washington, D. C., Diane Hamilton, left in picture, was welcomed by Virginia H. Knauer, special assistant to the President for Consumer Affairs. Mrs. Hamilton has been a member of the Panel since it was chartered in 1973 and was formerly director of consumer education for the Home Sewing Division of Kaiser Roth.

The FICAP is the informal complaint handling mechanism established by the Southern Furniture Manufacturers Association to assist consumers with furniture problems.

Mrs. Hamilton's husband, Robert J. Hamilton, is product manager for automatic blankets in the Fieldcrest Marketing Division, New York. The couple make their home in Summit, N. J.

Recipient

Karen Angela Tucker is a 1976 recipient of a Fieldcrest grant-in-aid. Her picture arrived too late to be included with the other grant-in-aid recipients in the last issue of The Mill Whistle.

Join Research Department

Vicki B. Wray and Barbara Lee Shough have joined the Fieldcrest Research Department as manager of the Analytical Laboratory and research technician, respectively.

Miss Wray is a graduate of High Point College with a B.S. degree in chemistry. Prior to joining Fieldcrest, she was employed in the Research and Development Department at Burlington Industries, Greensboro.

Miss Shough, who attended the Laboratory School at Danville Memorial Hospital, was previously employed at Morehead hospital as a laboratory technician.

Correction

The name of William C. Slayton was inadvertently printed as "Clayton" in the last issue of The Mill Whistle in connection with his 15 years of continuous service.

A phone correspondent supervisor at the Karastan Service Center, Mr. Slayton has continuous service with Karastan since August 11, 1961.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to all of you who were so kind and thoughtful to us with your many prayers, cards, food and your presence at the death of our husband and father, Pinkney Lee. May God bless each of you.

Swine Flu Shots

It is hoped that all of the materials needed for giving the immunizations will be available so that the shots may be given during October. Schedules for the mill clinics will be posted and publicized and details regarding the immunizations at each location will be announced as soon as available.

In addition to the swine flu shots, the Fieldcrest Medical Department will again offer the regular flu vaccine which contains the Hong Kong variety of immunization.
