

Sheeting 25-Year Club Holds Annual Meeting

Twenty-five Year Club members in the Sheet Operation, the General Offices and the Specials Department enjoyed their annual luncheon together Saturday, August 21.

It was originally planned to have the program at the Duke Power Ball Field but because of rain it was held instead at the Draper Elementary School cafeteria.

K. M. Vaughn, technical manager—sheet manufacturing, presided and recognized W. F. Crumley, division vice president and general manager—sheet manufacturing, who spoke briefly to the group.

Mr. Crumley expressed appreciation for the long-service employees. "I am glad to be a part of the Sheet Operation and I am proud of the fine people we have, especially the long-service group. Without your help and cooperation we could not have done as well as we have done," Mr. Crumley said.

Irving Hodges, retired manager of customer service for sheets, relayed a message from C. E. Moulton, long-time department sales manager for sheets who retired in 1968. Mr. Moulton expressed gratitude and appreciation "for the work done as a team in the sheet department over the years."

In the drawing for attendance prizes, conducted by J. T. Long, plant manager of the Sheet Finishing Mill, sheet sets were awarded as follows:

George Akers, "Secret Garden" set; Elbert Profitt, "Ronald McDonald & Friends"; Otis Robertson, "American Commemorative"; Elsie Harpe, "Interlude"; and Josie Chaney, "Halston's Flower".

R. C. Going, plant manager of the Draper Sheeting Mill, recognized the 50-year members present; Earl Bondurant, Allie Houchins, J. W. (Bill) Page and A. D. Weaver.

Mr. Going welcomed the following new members into the 25-Year Club: Jack Baker, Ola Callahan, Leonard Foster, Grace Lawson, Lorine Pruitt, Paul Westbrook, Draper Sheeting Mill; Giles Hunnings, and Guerrant Norman, General Offices; and Vivian Johnson and Samuel Ralph Going, plant manager, greets J. W. (Bill) Page, retired 50-year employee of Draper Sheeting Mill.

Smith, Specials Department.

Musical entertainment was furnished by the Spiritual Tones, a quartet including

Becky Kendrick of the Sheet Finishing Mill, a member of the 25-Year Club, and Donald Denny, of the Bedsread and Sheet Finishing Mills shop. Mrs. Kendrick sings alto and Mr. Denny sings lead and is manager of the quartet. Other members are Mrs. Kendrick's husband, Arthell, bass, and their son, Randy, who plays the drums. Geraldine Simpson sings tenor and Sandra Roberson is pianist and soprano.

The invocation preceding the buffet luncheon was given by Lewis Hammock, a retired employee of the Sheeting Weave Room.

Winners of first three door prizes, by coincidence, were seated at same table. Showing their prizes, from left to right, are Elbert Profitt, Otis Robertson and George Akers.

Henry Elliott, a supervisor, talks with Allie Houchins, 50-year employee retired from Sheet Finishing Mill. At left is Lavania Dichmond, who also is retired from Sheet Finishing Mill.

W. F. Crumley, division vice president, speaks to group.