Rug Sale

Joseph L. Connolly, Karastan's manager of customer services and warehousing.

"Certain of these items, such as discontinued styles, previously were disposed of through other distribution channels and we are pleased that through this sale company employees and retirees now have the opportunity to purchase them," Mr. Connolly said.

He emphasized that the sale is for employees and retirees only and that identification will be required. However, an "Authorization for Rug or Carpet Purchase" (Form FCO-13) will not be necessary.

Swine Flu Shots To Be Available

Fieldcrest employees will receive Swine Flu inoculations at their respective mills but the schedules have not been determined, according to Dr. Charles G. Young, corporate medical director.

The company must obtain the vaccine from the county health department at each location. Since the health departments themselves do not yet know when it will be available, schedules cannot be determined at this time, Dr. Young said.

Employees will be notified by mill notices and in The Mill Whistle when the shots will be offered.

Immunization of employees against the Hong Kong flu has already been completed at all locations, Dr. Young said.
