

Retiree Receives Arbor Day Honors

Mrs. Carl Williams, who is retired from the Bedspread Finishing Mill, was honored on Arbor Day as the outgoing president of the Azalea Garden Club. Mrs. Williams, center, is shown with club members, Mrs. B. Rickman, left, and Mrs. Frank Briggs. The club members planted a dogwood tree in Mrs. Williams' yard at 913 Overlook Avenue. They also gave her a tulip tree and her husband, Carl, gave her a lilac tree.

Mrs. Williams (Alice) retired May 1, 1976, from the Bedspread Finishing Mill. Mr. Williams retired on the same date from the Draper Sheeting Mill. Mrs. Rickman (Lessie) retired June 1, 1961 from the Karastan Rug Mill.
