Employees May Obtain Books

Fieldcrest Decorating Digest, published by the Publicity Department of the Fieldcrest Marketing Division, continues to be in highly popular demand with consumers across the country and is now being made available to Fieldcrest employees at no charge.

The 58-page book, written by nationally known Home Economist Judy Lindahl, contains hundreds of easy and practical hints on how to decorate and accessorize the home with Fieldcrest products. It includes instructions for the completion of many unique items such as table cloths, shower curtains, harem pillows, covered lampshades, picture frames, and how to put sheets on the wall. Most are accompanied by clearly drawn and fully detailed illustrations, to facilitate easy completion by even the most inexperienced do-it-yourselfer.

Sue Hartman, Director of Fieldcrest Publicity, reports that placements and editorial mentions of the booklet in virtually all the well-
