Carolina's First Lady Visits Eden

In keeping with tradition, North Carolina's First Lady visited the Fieldcrest Store in Eden recently to select bed and bath fashions for one of the governor's residences.

Mrs. Carolyn Hunt, wife of Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr., came to Eden on May 23 and selected bed and bath products primarily for the

July 1 Is Grant Application Deadline

Applications for educational grants-in-aid from the Fieldcrest Foundation must be received by July 1 to be considered for the fall semester.

Applications for grants should be submitted to the office of M. B. Franklin, General Offices Building, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., Eden, N. C. 27288. Application forms may be obtained from the area personnel managers.

The qualifications for educational grants-in-aid are:

1. Applications are taken only once per year, during June with a deadline of July 1.
2. The employee (parent) must have one year of continuous service with the company as of the date of application.

3. The applicant normally is planning to attend college for less than a four-year program, but four-year programs are eligible.

4. Applicant can have prior college experience or may be enrolled at present.

5. Grants are primarily awarded on the basis of financial need along with consideration of scholastic aptitude for college work.

6. Child possibly may not be eligible if married or has established own residence or livelihood.

The grants-in-aid should not be confused with the Fieldcrest Scholarships awarded each year for a four-year college program only and are not available to students who have completed some college work.

Employees To Get Benefits Statements

For the first time this year, a personalized benefits statement is being prepared and sent to all employees. It will contain a summary of the benefits being provided by the company. They will be printed shortly and should be mailed within the next two weeks. More details will be printed in the next Mill Whistle, which should be issued at the same time the statements are being mailed.

Savings Bonds Campaign Set

A company-wide campaign to interest Fieldcrest employees in U.S. Savings Bonds will begin at all facilities on June 20.

During the period between June 20 and June 24, employees who wish to sign up for Savings Bonds may do so right in their own departments by contacting their immediate supervisors.

Vice president-Industrial Relations Haven H. Newton, chairman of the Fieldcrest campaign, said in announcing plans for the campaign:

"When you want to invest in the future, Savings Bonds are a safe and
