Officials "Arrested" For Bike Fund . . .

. . . And Fun!

It was a citizens' "arrest" for charity when several members of the Beta Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha (ESA) International, including some Fieldcrest employees, took several Eden city officials into custody recently.

Squires, a shift foreman in the Spinning Department at Draper Sheeting Mill (right photo), was "arrested" for operating his trike at a high rate of speed.

Sgt. Posie Meadows and Detective Buddy Moretz of the police department, and Firemen Benny Sexton and Ronnie Overby were caught trying to "steal" the mayor pro-tem's tricycle.

Mrs. Mitchell Wilson and Mrs. Lee Ivester (wife of Fieldcrest's industrial hygienist) assisted in the "arrests."

Bond for the offenders has been set at $500 each and they were released to members of the sorority. Contributions toward their bond will be donated to the "BIKE ACROSS" for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to be held Saturday, July 23.

One hundred cyclists will compete in the "BIKE ACROSS," sponsored by the sorority chapter, by racing against the clock in a time obstacle course. All proceeds will go to the hospital to aid in treating children for leukemia and other types of cancer, infectious diseases and malnutrition free of charge and for research and development.
