

25-Year Club Meeting

It Was A Fine Day For Getting Together

PICKING OUT A PASTRY for dessert is Floyd Sartin, Draper Sheeting Mill. Offering the selection is J. T. Long.

More than 150 members of the 25-Year Club from the Sheeting Operation, General Offices and Specials Department gathered Saturday, August 27, at 11 a. m. for the club's annual meeting at the Draper Elementary School.

It was a day of renewing old friendships, hearing some inspirational music and enjoying a good meal together.

Master of ceremonies was J. T. Long, plant manager, Sheet Finishing Mill. D. T. Arnold, division vice president and general manager, Sheet Manufacturing, addressed the group, thanking them for their loyalty and service.

New members attending for the first time were recognized by R. C. Going, technical manager, Sheet Manufacturing, who also recognized the club members. Fifty-year members Allie Houchins, retired, and Earl Bondurant, retired, were recognized for their long service at Draper Sheeting.

Drawings for five sheet sets were made by K. M. Vaughn, plant manager, Sheet Finishing Mill. Winners were Edith Spain, Draper Sheeting, and Earl Bondurant, Sheet Finishing Mill. Other winners were Edith Spain, Draper Sheeting, and Earl Bondurant, Sheet Finishing Mill.

Entertainment was provided by the Spiritual Tones Quartet. The meeting was given by Ora Young.

Following the meal the meeting adjourned.

PICKING A WINNER for one of the sheet sets is Charles Sartin. Presenting the box is K. W. Vaughn who gave out the prizes.

ENJOYING THE MUSIC are Garland Church, left, Draper Sheeting Mill, and Essie Hubbard, retired from Draper Sheeting.

THE GENERAL OFFICERS presented at the meeting were Maggie B. Jones, both of the