

Happenings . . .

ROBIN GURLEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gurley, Sr., holds a certificate of official membership in the Atlanta Braves and Colonial Bakeries Birthday Club.

He celebrated his 12th birthday on July 4 at a baseball game between the Atlanta Braves and Cincinnati Reds. He received the certificate at a birthday party at the ball park and his name appeared in lights during the game.

His mother, Gladys, is a circuit inspector in the Winding Department at the Automatic Blanket Plant.

Frasier Accepts Position At Shaw

William Lamar Frasier, a Fieldcrest Foundation grant recipient, has completed the Masters of Art program in theatre at Tennessee State University and accepted a position at Shaw University. He will be an instructor and the technical director of the theatre there.

He received a Fieldcrest Foundation grant to attend North Carolina Central University where he majored in drama. Frasier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Frasier. His father works at the Blanket Finishing Mill.

WILLIAM FRASIER

Fieldale Women Place 2nd In Softball League

The Fieldale Towel Mill women's softball team was runner-up in the Martinsville Industrial League for the 1977 season.

Compiling a record of 11 wins and four losses, the Fieldale came in second in the playoffs and second for the season among nine teams competing.

Team members pictured are (front row, left to right) Elaine Slaugher, Myrna Lawson, Wanda Hairston, Madaline Gilbert, Tommie Bravely (manager), Gaynell Printy and Nancy Johnson.

Standing (left to right) are Cindy Perdue, Pindy Holland, Virginia Manns, Delveta Johnson, Polly Millner, Lavern Carter, Joanne Wainwright and Diane Hairston. The team coach, Robert Mosley, was not present in the photograph.

Fieldcrest In Finland!

E. L. Smith (above) and his wife found "a little bit of home" far from home. They were touring Scandinavia in July when they came across this Fieldcrest towel display in Stockman's department store in Helsinki, Finland.

The Smiths are from Charlotte, N. C. They are the parents of Terry Howell, manager of Information Services at the Automatic Blanket Plant in Smithfield.

Jarrell Wins 5 Trophies At Festival

Elizabeth Jarrell, student teacher at Kallam School of Dance in Eden, won five trophies at the World Youth Festival of the Performing Arts in Atlantic City, N. J. The festival was held July 8-10 at the Chalfonte Haddon Hall.

She is a graduate of the Beauty Spot Modeling School. In the senior modeling division she won first place in the swimwear, lounge wear and evening gown competition. She also won first place for a special "Spotlight On You" 30-second television commercial and the dance trophy.

Elizabeth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Jarrell. Her father works in the Cotton Carding Department at the Blanket Greige Mill. Her brother, Thomas, works in the Shipping Department at the Central Warehouse.

ELIZABETH JARRELL