LOU TROLLINGER

Karastan Secretary Named Working Girl Of the Month

Karastan's secretary to the manager of Cut Order and Warehousing Service Center was named the first "Working Girl of the Month" by Station WCBX at the end of September.

Lou Trollinger, a Fieldcrest employee for 15 years, has worked for Simmons at the Service Center for the past five years. She was nominated for the radio contest by warehouse employees Charles Moore and Waddell because of her "personality, friendliness and helpfulness."

"She always speaks to everybody and treats everybody the same," Moore said. "As far as I'm concerned she's the finest one that has worked at the Service Center in my 13 years here."

"She's always friendly and willing to help when you go in the office," Waddell. "It's the little things she does that mean so much."

Trollinger said she was surprised to find out she had been nominated when her name had been drawn. She received a dozen red roses and a dinner for two in honor of her outstanding work.

It's That Time!

It's that "time" of year again!

The approaching end of October should bring thoughts of the cool, crisp days of Autumn, the spirit of Halloween and the return to Standard Time.

At 2 a.m. on Sunday, October 30 the U.S. will officially change from Daylight Saving Time to Standard Time.

All Fieldcrest employees are reminded to move their clocks back one hour before retiring on Saturday night, October 29. (Hint: If it is 2 a.m., the time should be changed to 1 a.m.).

Employees Win Safety Slogan Contests

Winning safety slogans recently were submitted by Iva Rogers at Karastan Spinning Mill and Jack Massey at Laurel Hill Carpet Mill.

At left, Rogers, a spinner, and Ernie Loftin, Spinning supervisor, display her slogan, "Good housekeeping rules should be kept, not under our carpets swept."

She received a $10 gift certificate for company merchandise.
