New Medical Director

Dr. Thomas R. Maloney assumed his duties November 14 as medical director of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., replacing Dr. Charles G. Young who recently resigned from the company. Prior to joining Fieldcrest, he was managing physician with I.B.M. Corporation, Research Triangle Park, N. C. He had previously been engaged in private practice for 14 years, 12 years in White Plains, N.Y., and two years in Scarsdale, N.Y. Dr. Maloney received his undergraduate education at Fordham University and his M. D. degree from New York University Medical School. He interned at French Hospital, New York City, and was a flight surgeon in the U. S. Naval Medical Corps. From 1951 until 1952, he was chief resident, internal medicine, White Plains Hospital, White Plains, N. Y.

He is a member of the American Medical Association, the Wake County Medical Society, Durham-Orange County Medical Society and the North Carolina Medical Society. He is also an associate clinical professor of psychiatry at the University of North Carolina Medical School, Department of Psychiatry.

Dr. Maloney has engaged in post-graduate studies in various areas including toxicology of tetraethyl, tetramethyl lead and petroleum additives at the Kettering Laboratory, University of Cincinnati; occupational psychiatry at the Menninger Clinic, Topeka, Kansas; otology and audiometry at the Institute of Hearing Conservation in Philadelphia, Pa.; and current research and advances in internal medicine at the National Institutes of Health in Washington, D. C.

A native of St. Louis, he is married and has six children, one of which still lives at home. The Maloney family now resides on Country Club Drive in Eden.

DR. THOMAS MALONEY

Letter of Appreciation

Dear Fieldcrest Employees:

Once again the employees of Fieldcrest have responded to the needs of their various communities in a superb manner. The outstanding support that you gave your United Fund campaigns reflects tremendous credit on you and on the company.

Fieldcrest employees contributed a total of $352,753.32 company-wide to these very worthwhile programs.

I congratulate you. Your company is very proud of you and for me personally it is a real privilege to work with you.

Sincerely,

President
