

Children And Santa

Santa Claus and the wonder of children at Christmas. That's a combination hard for anyone, much less a photographer, to resist.

The photographs on this page were taken at the annual Children's Christmas party for employees at the Columbus Towel Mill and Phenix City Plant.

In addition to Santa, the children saw a special feature movie and cartoons and received Christmas stockings filled with candy. The December 17 event was held at the Georgia Theatre at 9:30 a.m. and again at 12 noon. Approximately 2,300 Fieldcrest employees and their children attended the events.

YOU WON'T FORGET TO STOP AT OUR HOUSE, PROMISE?

I JUST CAN'T SEEM TO MAKE UP MY MIND.

WAITING FOR SANTA are Frances D. Smith, pre-supervisory trainee, and her son, Derek.

WHO ARE YOU, ANYWAY?

SANTA WITHOUT A BEARD? No, it's D. W. Sprouse, division vice president and general manager, Columbus Towel Manufacturing, with Randy Joey Massey, Randy's father, Richard Massey, is a warper and spooler server.

I'VE REALLY BEEN VERY, VERY GOOD ALL YEAR LONG.
