Employees Celebrate Safety

KARASTAN SERVICE CENTER EMPLOYEES (below, left-right) Jarrett Inge, Janet Grogan and Bill Allen know safety has its benefits.

KARASTAN MANAGERS (left-right) Joe Connolly, Jr., Customer Services and Warehousing; Oscar Simmons, Cut Order and Warehousing; and W. F. Crumley, division vice president and general manager-Karastan Rug Manufacturing; are proud of the top safety record.

Karastan Service Center

Karastan Service Center ployees are tops in safety per mance. They led the compar-through March with 842,792 to safe hours and 12,219 safe hours employee. The last lost-time all dent in the mill occurred in 1972

Management honored these e ployees for their safety performa as of February with a dinner and of praise.

In commending the employ Joe Connolly, Jr., manager Customer Service and Warehous said, "We continue to hold the safety record in Fieldcrest Mills urge you to continue your intere safe work habits and good ho keeping practices so this record a be maintained."

Non Woven Mill

Employees at the Non Woven Mill recently celebrated their safety record with a barbecue dinner on each shift.

Through February, these employees had surpassed the 2,000 safe hours per employee mark with 4,059 average hours per employee. Total safe hours for the mill since the last lost-time accident in 1976 were 252,738.

Fred Robertson, plant manager,

Blanket Greige Mills, thanked the employees for their fine job performances and urged them to continue to be aware of safety in their work.

Giles Hunnings, division group vice president—Bed Fashions Manufacturing; and Norman Young, division vice president and general manager-Blanket Manufacturing; personally greeted and congratulated the employees for their safety record.

NON WOVEN MILL EMPLOYEES (above) enjoyed a safety pa recently for attaining 2,000 safe hours per employee.

SUPERINTENDENT Paul Jones; David LaPrade, general foreman Mack Johnson, assistant safety director; (left photo, foreground right) discussed safety performance. In background are (left-right) Robertson, plant manager, Blanket Greige Mills; Norman Young, division general manager—Blanket Manufacturing; and Hunnings, division general manager—Blanket Manufacturing; and Hunnings, division group vice president—Bed Fashions Manufacturing

